THIS IS HOW IT ALWAYS IS

Laurie Frankel

"Sharp and surprising. This is a wonderfully contradictory story — heartwarming and generous, yet written with a wry sensibility."

— starred, Publishers Weekly Pick of the Week

"Inspired by her daughter's own transition, Frankel tells Poppy's story with compassion and humor." — Booklist

[SML] Claude is five years old, the youngest of five brothers. He loves peanut butter sandwiches. He also loves wearing a dress. When he grows up, Claude says, he wants to be a girl. Rosie and Penn want Claude to be whoever he wants to be, but aren't sure they're ready to share that with the world. The entire family keeps Claude's secret. Until one day it explodes.

THE KEEPER OF LOST THINGS

Ruth Hogan

"... warm and quirky characters and the mystery of each lost item impel the reader forward." — Booklist

"A moving debut novel with witty and charming characters... believable and fast-paced, with surprises sprinkled throughout the plot."

— RT Book Reviews (4 stars)

Forty years ago, Anthony Peardew carelessly lost a keepsake from his beloved fiancée. That very same day, she died unexpectedly. Brokenhearted, Anthony sought consolation in rescuing lost objects and writing stories about them. This charming, clever, and quietly moving debut is a novel of endless possibilities, joyful discoveries, and the surprising connections that bind us.

WORLD, CHASE ME DOWN

Andrew Hilleman

"Lively . . . A raucous example of narrative invention. Pat makes for an enthusiastic narrator, and he ends his story on a surprising note that affirms man's infinite capacity for resilience in the face of life's harsh vicissitudes." — Publishers Weekly

This rousing, suspenseful debut novel — True Grit meets Catch Me If You Can — is based on the forgotten true story of Pat Crowe, once the most wanted man in America. A Robin Hood of the American frontier, Crowe captivated the nation as an outlaw for economic justice who pulled off the first successful kidnapping for ransom in U.S. history.

THE BEAUTIFUL DEAD

Belinda Bauer

"This intense, compelling novel from British author Bauer (The Shut Eye) is filled with dark humor and is sure to satisfy fans of Tami Hoag and Karin Slaughter." — Library Journal

TV crime reporter Eve Singer's flagging career revives when she covers a spate of bizarre murders committed in public and advertised like an art exhibition. When the killer contacts her, she's inside the biggest murder investigation of the decade. But Eve soon realizes there's a thin line between inside information and becoming an accomplice to murder — possibly her own.

Rebecca's Selections

Stories for women about women. Their relationships with family and friends, about how they overcome obstacles in their lives and discover the value of loving themselves. Selections consist of clean, wholesome reads and contain no graphic sex or violence. These titles are selected by Booklist editor Rebecca Vnuk, an expert in the Women's Fiction genre and former librarian.

Rebecca's thoughts . . .

This charming and romantic novel features a lovely ensemble cast of characters. The humor and heartbreak here make this perfect for fans of Marion Keyes, Jane Green, and Kate Jacobs.

Rebecca's thoughts . . .

A warm story of love and sisters, Robinson's latest looks at family secrets. Readers who enjoy contemporary family sagas will appreciate this charming story of how three very different sisters process their shared past.

THE FLOWER ARRANGEMENT

Ella Griffin

"Griffin's charming and insightful third novel examines how random lives are connected, like characters in a Raymond Carver story." — Library Journal

At Blossom & Grow, a tiny flower shop in the heart of Dublin, Lara works her magic translating feelings into flower arrangements that change hearts and lives. She knows their power. Flowers gave Lara hope as a child who lost a mother, and again as a mother who lost a child. But old wounds take time to heal. When will the woman who unlocks everyone else's emotions open up her own heart?

FOLLY COVE

Holly Robinson

"Only when their picture-perfect lives are shattered do the Bradford sisters realize how strong the bond of sisterhood really is." — Booklist

The Bradford sisters of Rockport, Massachusetts, are famous for their beauty, their voices, their ancestors, and their elegant mother, who runs the historic Folly Cove Inn alone since her husband disappeared. As the sisters reunite to celebrate their mother's birthday, they struggle to maintain the illusions they've carefully crafted about their lives — until painful old wounds reopen, and startling family secrets are revealed.

This Quarter's Peer Picks Selector is Vicky Kemp

Vicky Kemp is the Technical Services Manager for the Flower Mound Public Library in Texas. She began her career with books as a manager for several B. Dalton bookstores and moved to the library world in 1992. Vicky received her MLS from the University of North Texas in 1999 and became the Collection Development Coordinator for the Carrollton Public Libraries. She has also worked for the Fort Worth Public Library and the Irving Public Library systems. For two years, Vicky wrote the mystery review column for Library Journal magazine and she has served on ALA and TLA committees selecting best adult fiction lists for several years. Reading is her passion and avocation.

Best Practices: Prioritize Collection Development

As a librarian, I have many different resources available. Making time to read review journals (Library Journal, Booklist and Kirkus Reviews, at a minimum) needs to be incorporated into your work flow during the week. I do not encourage staff to read at the Reference Desk because it can send the wrong message if a patron approaches and your head is buried in a journal, but you should be aware of what is going on around you and look up often to ensure people are not intimidated into not wanting to interrupt your work. That being said, I do have some go-to resources for finding pre-publication titles:

- Early Word (<http://www.earlyword.com/>) My friend Robin Beerbower writes for Early Word. It is a chatty column filled with lots of information about all kinds of books, such as publishers' book buzz titles for the publishing seasons. At the end of the year, a Twitter fest called #libfaves compiles everyone's favorite reads.
- Edelweiss (<http://edelweiss.abovethetreeline.com/HomePage.aspx>) and Netgalley (<https://s2.netgalley.com/>) These are two websites that host e-copies of ARCs. You need to sign up for them and be a "reader of influence" who promises to post reviews and links to those reviews. I use Netgalley extensively.

Third-party vendor websites also offer extensive lists to review. Baker and Taylor, Brodart, and Ingram provide lists of high-interest categories such as award-winning books, common-core titles and foreign language titles (Midwest Tapes offers a huge list of various languages to search by), not to mention breakdowns of lists by various genres.

There is a lot of information out there. Go and explore to find your own go-to places. Make the time to prioritize collection development to enhance your patrons' browsing and research needs.

KILL DEVIL FALLS

Brian Klingborg

When U.S. Marshal Helen Morrissey is tasked with collecting a fugitive bank robber from a remote town in the Sierra Nevadas, she braces for a rough trip. After all, with a name like Kill Devil Falls, her destination must be a real hellhole. Turns out it's worse than she imagined. Much worse. But it's not until her prisoner turns up dead that Helen realizes she's in real trouble. There are secrets buried below the surface of Kill Devil Falls. Secrets worth killing for.

978-1-4104-9914-1 ■ $31.99 U.S.

Suspense ■ Releases 4/19/2017

Vicky says: It is unusual for a male author to write a female character so well, especially a debut author. U.S. Marshal Helen Morrissey is a strong woman who has to work twice as hard as her male counterparts to stay in the same place. When she is commanded to travel to tiny Kill Devil Falls to transport a prisoner, murder and mayhem will test this strength.

IQ

Joe Ide

"A seamless, utterly entertaining blend of coming-of-age saga, old-school detective story, and comic-caper novel. . . . This is one of those rare debuts that leaves us panting for more — and soon." — starred, Booklist

East Long Beach. The LAPD can't keep up with the crime rate. Murders go unsolved, lost children unrecovered. But someone from the neighborhood is taking on the cases the police can't or won't touch. They call him IQ, a loner and high school dropout with a fierce intelligence and relentless determination, who charges whatever folks can afford.

978-1-4104-9922-6 ■ $30.99 U.S.

Mystery ■ Releases 4/19/2017

Vicky says: I fell in love with IQ (Isaiah Quintabe) from the first. He rose from his humble beginnings in South Central LA to the heights his intellect could take him. Losing his brother, Marcus, to a random hit-and-run only made him stronger. Now, he runs an off-the-books practice, helping poor people who cannot help themselves. IQ is a wonderful character who will stay with you long after the book is finished.

VALIANT GENTLEMEN

Sabina Murray

"Brimming with exquisite detail and clever humor . . . [Murray] maintains an impressive balance of historical accuracy and dramatic momentum, crafting a stellar fiction . . ."

— starred, Publishers Weekly

SML Darkly humorous and alive with detail, Valiant Gentlemen reimagines the lives and intimate friendships of humanitarian and Irish patriot Roger Casement; his closest friend, Herbert Ward; and Ward's extraordinary wife, Argentinian-American heiress Sarita Sanford, in a uniquely human account of some of the early 20th century's larger historical figures.

978-1-4104-9843-4 ■ $31.99 U.S.

Historical Fiction ■ Releases 4/5/2017

"PEN/Faulkner Award-winning Murray delivers an epic adventure . . . that will thrill history buffs and literary fiction fans alike. Ward's extraordinary wife, the Argentinian-American heiress Sarita Sanford completes the love triangle. The characters jump off the page with the sly, dark humor and language brimming with energy. Themes of friendship, identity, grief and betrayal combined with clever satire and meticulous attention to historical detail will have this book mentioned alongside the likes of Peter Carey, Hilary Mantel and Lily King."

Adult Programming Manager for the Cuyahoga County Public Library

KILL THE NEXT ONE

Federico Axat

"Nightmare imagery, mind-bending plot twists, and a kaleidoscopic storytelling style . . . but at the core of this literary fever dream lies an elegantly crafted and emotionally resonant mystery . . ." — starred, Publishers Weekly

Ted McKay had a beautiful wife, two daughters, and a high-paying job. But after being diagnosed with a terminal brain tumor he finds himself holding a gun to his temple. Then the doorbell rings. A stranger makes him a proposition: why not kill two deserving men first, and then Ted will become someone else's target in a suicidal daisy chain.

978-1-4104-9818-2 ■ $30.99 U.S.

Thriller ■ Releases 4/5/2017

"Argentinian author Axat adds layers of twists to this psychological, mind-bending mystery with an unreliable narrator and hallucinatory atmosphere, all permeated by dread and tension but infused with humanity. The puzzles, labyrinths and hypnotic quality of South American magic realism are cleverly interwoven into this maze of a thriller. For fans of Blake Crouch and Tana French."

THE ROAD TO JONESTOWN JIM JONES AND PEOPLES TEMPLE

Jeff Guinn

"[A] tour-de-force of a biography. . . important for students of criminology, human behavior, popular culture, music, psychopathology and sociopathology, and compulsively readable." — The New York Times Book Review on Manson

The bestselling author of Manson offers a comprehensive, authoritative, and tragic account of the life of Jim Jones and his church, Peoples Temple. Guinn provides stunning new details of the events leading to the fatal day in November, 1978, when more than nine hundred people died — including almost three hundred children — after being ordered to swallow a cyanide-laced drink.

THE EDUCATION OF WILL A MUTUAL MEMOIR OF A WOMAN AND HER DOG

Patricia B. McConnell

"The Education of Will delves deep into the minds of people and dogs, and into the effects of trauma, showing that healing is possible. McConnell gives a voice to those who can't speak in words and provides hope for fearful animals everywhere."

— Temple Grandin, author of Animals Make Us Human

In a powerful, soul-searching, beautifully written memoir, animal behaviorist Patricia McConnell recounts for the first time the compelling story of her dark past, memories of which are triggered by a troubled dog named Will. In order to save Will from dangerous outbreaks of fear and fury, Dr. McConnell was forced to find her own will to heal.

MIDDLE READER COLLECTION

Sure to appeal to young readers, whether they are reluctant, proficient, or in-between

Benefits of a Larger Font:

Studies show that Large Print has proven to have the following impacts on readers of all ages by:

- Improving letter and word recognition.
- Aiding in reading comprehension.
- Boosting confidence in beginner or reluctant readers.
- Being an essential resource for ESL/ELL students.
- Relieving digital eye strain and bringing enjoyment back to reading.

Our Large Print Books:

- Are often the same size or smaller than their hardcover or trade paperback counterparts
- Are complete and unabridged.
- Are bound especially for high circulation — they're made to last (we guarantee it).
- Often feature the same cover art as the regular print editions. This is especially true for our middle reader and young adult titles.

"The best middle grade adaptations of popular adult nonfiction titles bring exciting new content and a kid-appealing angle to the original story. Often more visual experiences than their adult counterparts, these books inspire kids' imaginations with extra photographs, explanatory diagrams, and perhaps even new illustrations. Rather than merely abridging the originals, authors revise (or sometimes entirely rewrite!) the texts in order to be accessible and relatable to younger readers in diction, syntax, and content. These adaptations, paired with their originals, would make excellent parent-child simultaneous reads!"

A WORD FOR LOVE

Emily Robbins

"With an impressive economy of words, Robbins, formerly a Fulbright Fellow in Syria, tells a story that proves that themes of love, loss, and freedom truly can transcend borders and time." — starred, Booklist

This mesmerizing debut set in Syria on the cusp of unrest is the spare and exquisitely told story of a young American woman transformed by language, risk, war, and a startling new understanding of love. Robbins delivers a powerful novel that questions what it means to love from afar, to be an outsider within a love story, and to take someone else's passion and cradle it until it becomes your own.

THEIR FINEST

Lissa Evans

"Evans displays a fine eye for detail and for the absurdities involved in filming. . . . This funny, heart-warming and beautifully crafted novel is a must-read."
— Daily Mail (London)

It's 1940. France has fallen, and only a narrow strip of sea lies between Great Britain and invasion. Young copywriter Catrin Cole is drafted by the Ministry of Information to "write women" into propaganda films. Their latest is a heartwarming tale of bravery at Dunkirk. And since the war has stripped the industry of its brightest and best, it's left to the utterly unsuitable to unite for King and Country.

LOVERS AND NEWCOMERS

Rosie Thomas

"An engaging, emotionally rich story of best friends reconciling the past while the present marches irrevocably forward and of an unexpected shape of family."
— Booklist

Miranda Meadowe decides a lonely widowhood is not for her and invites five of her oldest friends to come and join her to live and stave off old age. To begin with, the omens are good. They laugh, dance, drink and behave badly. But as old attractions resurface alongside new tensions, they discover that the clock can't be put back.

FIRST COMES LOVE

Emily Giffin

"Moving and complex . . ." — Booklist

Growing up, Josie and Meredith Garland shared a loving, if sometimes contentious, relationship. When tragedy strikes, their delicate bond splinters. Fifteen years later, as the anniversary of their tragedy looms, they must confront the issues that divide them and come to terms with their own choices. Both sisters discover that in the search for true happiness, love always comes first.
