HIS BLOODY PROJECT DOCUMENTS RELATING TO THE CASE OF RODERICK MACRAE

Graeme Macrae Burnet

"Sly, poignant, gritty, thought-provoking, and sprinkled with wit." — starred, Publishers Weekly

SML A brutal triple murder in a remote Scottish farming community in 1869 leads to the arrest of 17-year-old Roderick Macrae. There's no question that he committed the crime. What set a shy and intelligent boy on this path? And will he hang for it? Graeme Macrae Burnet's multilayered story — centered around an unreliable narrator — will keep readers guessing to the very end.

978-1-4104-9817-5 ■ $31.99 U.S.

Historical Fiction ■ Releases 3/8/2017

"The clever tale is told through a collection of historical documents, including Roddy's written confession, interviews with villagers and a report by a criminal psychologist. The ingenious structure provides for a unique sociological study couched in a chilling true crime investigation. The period language and poetic descriptions of place will enthrall readers of historical fiction. For fans of Iain Pears and Umberto Eco."

THE FALL GUY

James Lasdun

"[A] terrific novel of suspense . . . Lasdun presents the inexorable turnings of fate in a subtle and disconcerting way." — starred, Publishers Weekly

In this taut psychological thriller, a couple and their houseguest find themselves caught in a deadly web of secrets, obsession, and revenge. The Fall Guy is a complex moral tale as well as a gripping suspense story, probing questions of guilt and betrayal with ruthless incisiveness.

978-1-4104-9819-9 ■ $30.99 U.S.

Thriller ■ Releases 3/8/2017

"A taut and cerebral literary thriller. . . . Matthew delights the couple with his culinary talents but tension soon boils over in this exquisitely paced, unbearably suspenseful morality tale. Lasdun's elegant prose serves up an unsettling dish of obsessions and jealousy seasoned with keen social observations of class and privilege while simmering with plots of revenge. For fans of Ian McEwan and Herman Koch."

THIS QUARTER'S PEER PICKS SELECTOR IS Vicki Nesting

Vicki has worked in the St. Charles Parish Library System in Destrehan, Louisiana for 17 years, first as a Regional Branch Librarian and then as Assistant Director. Before she came to St. Charles Parish, she worked at New Orleans Public Library and Jefferson Parish Library. Vicki has served on numerous ALA committees such as the RUSA-CODES Readers' Advisory Committee, VRT Notable Videos for Adults Committee, and RUSA-CODES Reading List Council. She also served as editor of the "New Product News" column in Public Libraries magazine for ten years. She is an active participant in the LibraryReads program and EarlyWord's monthly GalleyChat. St. Charles Parish is a rural-suburban area outside of New Orleans, with a population of approximately 52,000 people. The library system has two regional branches and four smaller neighborhood branches as well as a bookmobile and a planetarium.

TRENDS

Although you are reading this in February/March 2017, I am writing at the end of 2016, which is a perfect time to reflect on some of the interesting trends in book publishing.

Thanks to Gone Girl, psychological suspense and unreliable narrators continue to be popular and the trend shows no sign of abating. Sarah Pinborough's Behind Her Eyes, Erin Kelly's He Said/She Said and JP Delaney's The Girl Before should keep these readers happily turning the pages in 2017.

Interest in historical fiction remains strong as you can see by my two selections this month (on opposite page). Some other titles to watch for in 2017: The Orphan's Tale by Pam Jenoff, A Piece of the World by Christina Baker Kline, and The Alice Network by Kate Quinn.

One trend that has been fascinating to me is the number of nonfiction books focusing on women in scientific fields such as Hidden Figures by Margot Lee Shetterly (recently made into a movie), The Rise of the Rocket Girls by Nathalia Holt, and the upcoming Radium Girls by Kate Moore.

In addition, many readers have been enjoying the trend toward books featuring quirky characters. Think of titles like A Man Called Ove by Fredrik Backman, The Readers of Broken Wheel Recommend by Katarina Bivald, and Be Frank with Me by Julia Claiborne Johnson. If you have readers who enjoy these, watch for these upcoming titles: Eleanor Oliphant Is Completely Fine by Gail Honeyman and Beartown by Fredrik Backman.

GIRL IN DISGUISE

Greer Macallister

"An exciting, well-crafted historical novel.
... Loaded with suspense and action, this is a well-told, superb story."
— starred, Publishers Weekly

SML The streets of 1856 Chicago offer a woman mostly trouble and ruin — unless the woman is widow Kate Warne, the nation's first female Pinkerton detective, who has a knack for manipulation and an unusually quick mind. Inspired by Warne's real story, this spirited novel brings to life a fiercely independent woman whose forgotten triumphs helped sway the fate of the country.

978-1-4104-9783-3 ■ $33.99 U.S.

Historical Fiction ■ Releases 3/22/2017

Vicki says: Who would have thought that the Pinkerton Detective Agency actually hired a female detective back in the 1850s? I certainly never did! This fast-paced and suspenseful historical novel is based on the life of that first female Pinkerton, Kate Warne, and she is a fascinating and vividly-drawn character. With a keen mind and a knack for disguises, she quickly becomes an important part of the Pinkerton team, although it takes a while for her fellow detectives to accept her. This book will be perfect for fans of Amy Stewart's Girl Waits with Gun, about one of the first female deputy sheriffs in the country.

THE SECOND MRS. HOCKADAY

Susan Rivers

"Taut, almost unbearable suspense . . .
This galvanizing historical portrait of courage,
determination, and abiding love mesmerizes
and shocks." — starred, Booklist

SML When Major Gryffth Hockaday is called to the front lines of the Civil War, his new bride is left to care for her husband's 300-acre farm and infant son. A mere teenager, Placidia endures the dark days of the war on her own. When Hockaday returns she is bound for jail, accused of bearing a child in his absence and murdering it. What transpired in the two years he was away?

Historical Fiction ■ Releases 3/22/2017

Vicki says: I can't resist a good epistolary novel and this one is exceptional. What happens when a teenage bride is left on her own to run the family farm when her husband has to return to battle during the Civil War after only two days of marriage? This historical debut is the compelling and heartbreaking story of Placidia Hockaday, who is accused of giving birth and killing the child while her husband was away fighting in the Civil War, and is based on a real court case. It is told entirely through letters, court documents, and journal entries. Don't miss this one!

When mayoral candidate Richard "Dickie" Byrd throws a high school reunion, it brings back not-so-sweet memories for dessert shop proprietor Chase Oliver and her friend Julie Larson. Julie would rather not reconnect with Ron North, the creepy kid who had a crush on her back in the day. So when Ron's body is found in the park the next day, Julie is suspected of murder.

BRAKING FOR BODIES

A Cycle Path Mystery

Duffy Brown

"Cozy mystery fans will be thrilled to ride along with Evie Bloomfield as she samples fudge and chases down the villains of Mackinac Island."

— New York Times bestselling author Ellery Adams on Geared for the Grave

Moving from LA to Mackinac Island to work in a bike shop is the best decision Evie Bloomfield ever made. Lately, the Lilac Festival has everyone riding in circles. But things go downhill when her friend Fiona's former boss, the editor of a sleazy rag in LA, arrives. No one knows why Peephole Perry is there, but things aren't looking good for Fiona when he's found dead.

GILT TRIP

A Scrapbooking Mystery

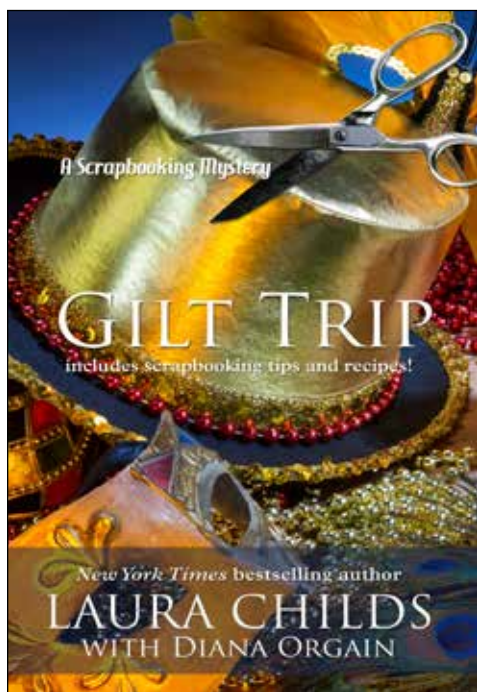

Laura Childs with Diana Orgain

“Chutzpah and coincidence play large roles . . . in this Big Easy romp.”
— Publishers Weekly

Scrapbook shop owner Carmela Bertrand and her best friend, Ava, are off to an extravagant fete that prominent socialite Margo Leland is throwing to welcome her husband, Jerry Earl, home from prison. There’s a zydeco band, champagne ice luge, and waiters in tails. But in the midst of the revelry, Jerry Earl is found murdered — his body stuffed inside a clothes dryer.

LIKE A BEE TO HONEY

The Honeybee Sisters

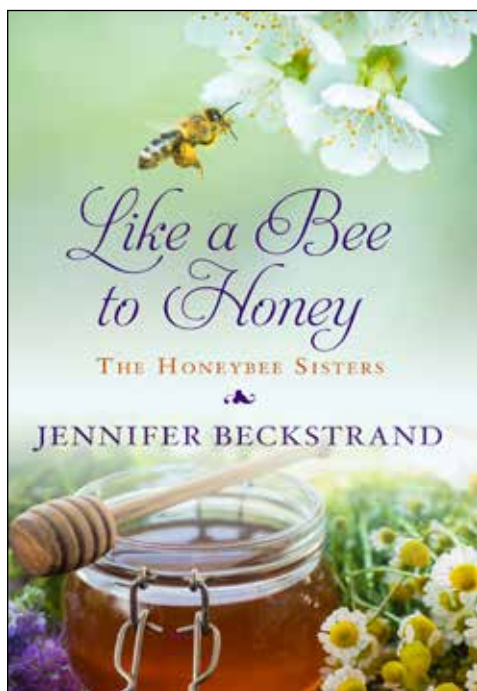

Jennifer Beckstrand

“Beckstrand brings her Wisconsin-set Honeybee Sisters trilogy to a wonderfully satisfying conclusion . . . that beautifully celebrates the triumph of everyday courage and compassion as well as the importance in life of faith and family.” — Booklist

Rose Christner is more comfortable tending to the beehives than attending social gatherings with the die youngie. A secret shame keeps her from accepting the sweet attention of handsome neighbor Josiah Yoder. But when a vandal who’s been plaguing the Honeybee Farm starts targeting Rose, Josiah’s steadfast protection may lead her into his waiting arms.
