HOME SWEET HOMICIDE

"The doyenne of the comic mystery."

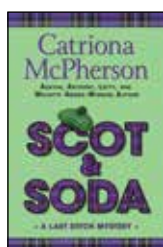

— Kirkus Reviews

Unoccupied and unsupervised while mother is working, the children of widowed crime writer Marion Carstairs find diversion playing amateur sleuths and matchmakers. Poking fun at the conventions of the genre, this comedic crime story finds "the Dorothy Parker of detective fiction" at her most entertaining. The basis for the 1946 film of the same name, Home Sweet Homicide launched Craig Rice to literary fame.

THE SEAMSTRESS

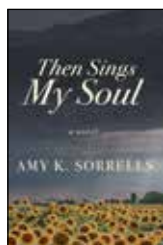

Allison Pittman

"This lyrical, propulsive story . . . stitches together a gripping tale of grace and truth amid incomprehensible suffering." — Publishers Weekly

France, 1788: It is the best of times . . . On a tranquil country farm, orphaned cousins Renée and Laurette tend the sheep of their caring guardian, Émile Gagnon. It is the worst of times . . . As Paris groans with restlessness even their quiet village feels the rumbles of rebellion. It is the story that has never been told. Pittman's beautifully crafted story breathes life into the cameo character from A Tale of Two Cities.

SHADOW AMONG SHEAVES

Naomi Stephens

"Poetic prose. Strong characters. And a drama that gets under your skin." — Michelle Griep

When Britain's imperial influence in India was sparking brutal clashes, no one expected Rena, an Indian woman, to marry a British officer — or understood her decision to follow her mother-in-law to England after her husband's tragic death. Stephens offers a beautiful allegory of the biblical love story of Ruth and Boaz set in the aftermath of the 1857 India Mutiny.

SHELTER IN PLACE Nora Roberts

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER

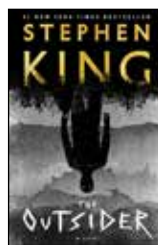

It was a typical evening at a mall outside Portland, Maine. Teenagers wait for the movie to start, a boy flirts with the girl selling sunglasses, mothers shop with their children. Until the shooters arrived, bringing chaos and carnage. But someone wasn't satisfied with the death toll that day. And as the survivors slowly heal, they find that another conspirator is lying in wait.

THE OUTSIDER Stephen King

An unspeakable crime. A confounding investigation. An eleven-year-old boy's violated corpse. Eyewitnesses and fingerprints point unmistakably to one of Flint City's most popular citizens: Terry Maitland, Little League coach, English teacher, husband, and father of two girls. As the investigation expands and horrifying answers begin to emerge, King's propulsive story kicks into high gear, generating strong tension and almost unbearable suspense.

978-1-4328-5264-1 | $19.99 U.S.

Thriller | Releases 7/24/2019

BEFORE AND AGAIN Barbara Delinsky

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

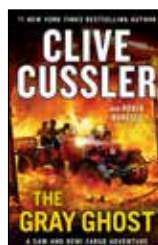

Mackenzie Cooper took her eyes off the road just long enough to rob her of her beloved daughter and ultimately of her marriage, family, friends, and privacy.

Now she lives in Vermont under the name Maggie Reid. Covering up scars is a skill she has mastered. Then a new friend's teenage son is thrust into the national spotlight, accused of hacking a powerful man's Twitter account. And as the stunning truth behind their case is slowly revealed, Maggie's own carefully constructed story begins to unravel as well.
