A SINGLE THREAD

Tracy Chevalier

NEW YORK TIMES
BESTSELLING AUTHOR
EDITOR'S CHOICE #6 TITLE

"A master of voices."

— The New York Times Book Review

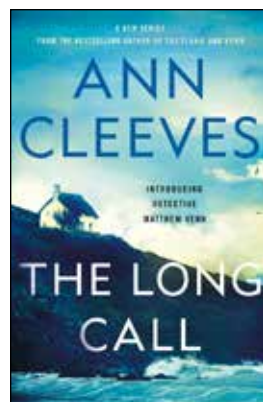

1932. After the Great War took both her beloved brother and her fiancé, Violet Speedwell has become a "surplus woman," one of a generation doomed to a life of spinsterhood after the war killed so many young men. Violet finds support and community in a group of broderers -- women who embroider kneelers for the cathedral. But when forces threaten her new independence and another war appears on the horizon, Violet must fight to put down roots in a place where women aren't expected to grow. An immersive, moving story of a woman coming into her own.

THE LONG CALL

The Two Rivers Series • Book 1

Ann Cleeves

EDITOR'S CHOICE #6 TITLE

"The plotting is complex and intriguing, the location comes alive, and the resolution satisfies."

— starred, Library Journal

Detective Matthew Venn stands outside the church as his estranged father's funeral takes place. On the day Matthew left the strict evangelical community he grew up in, he lost his family too. Now, as he turns and walks away again, he receives a call that a body has been found on the beach nearby. The case calls Matthew back to the people and places of his past, as deadly secrets hidden at their hearts are revealed, and his new life is forced into a collision course with the world he thought he'd left behind.

STATE OF THE UNION

A MARRIAGE IN TEN PARTS

Nick Hornby

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

"Consisting almost entirely of witty repartee."

— Kirkus Reviews

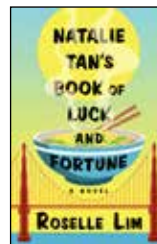

Tom and Louise meet in a pub before their couple's therapy appointment.

Married for years, they thought they had a stable home life — until a recent incident pushed them to the brink. Unfolding in the minutes before their weekly therapy sessions, the ten-chapter conversation that ensues forces them to look at their marriage — and, for the first time in a long time, at each other.

NOTHING VENTURED

William Warwick Novels

Jeffrey Archer#1 NEW YORK TIMES

EDITOR'S CHOICE #5 TITLE

This is not a detective story, this is a story about the making of a detective . . .

William Warwick has always wanted to be a detective, and decides, much to his father's dismay, that rather than become a lawyer like him and his sister Grace, he will join London's Metropolitan Police Force.

Through twists, triumph, and tragedy, this series will show that William Warwick is destined to become one of Jeffrey Archer's most enduring legacies.

OUR DOGS, OURSELVES
THE STORY OF A SINGULAR BOND
Alexandra Horowitz

#1 NEW YORK TIMES
BESTSELLING AUTHOR

We keep dogs and are kept by them. We love dogs and (we assume) we're loved by them. We buy them sweaters, toys, shoes; we're concerned with their social lives, their food, and their health. The story of humans and dogs is thousands of years old but is far from understood. In Our Dogs, Ourselves, Alexandra Horowitz reveals the odd, surprising, and contradictory ways we live with dogs. She explores all aspects of this unique and complex interspecies pairing and affirms our profound affection for this most charismatic of animals — and opens our eyes to the companions at our sides as never before.

ELDERHOOD
REDEFINING AGING,
TRANSFORMING MEDICINE,
REIMAGINING LIFE

Louise Aronson

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER

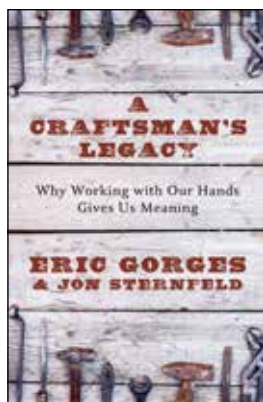

"[A] penetrating meditation on geriatrics."

— starred, Publishers Weekly

Reminiscent of Oliver Sacks, noted Harvard-trained geriatrician Louise Aronson uses stories from her quarter century of caring for patients, and draws from history, science, literature, popular culture, and her own life to weave a vision of old age that's neither nightmare nor utopian fantasy — a vision full of joy, wonder, frustration, outrage, and hope about aging, medicine, and humanity itself. Elderhood is for anyone who is, in the author's own words, "an aging, i.e., still-breathing human being."

A CRAFTSMAN'S LEGACY
WHY WORKING WITH OUR HANDS GIVES US MEANING
Eric Gorges and Jon Sternfeld

"This is an impressive and emotionally rich appreciation of the work often taken for granted."
— Publishers Weekly

In this joyful celebration of skilled craftsmen, Eric Gorges taps into a growing hunger to get back to what's real. Through visits with fellow artisans, Gorges identifies values that are useful for all of us: taking time to slow down and enjoy the process, embracing failure, knowing when to stop and when to push through, and accepting that perfection is an illusion. Most of all, A Craftsman's Legacy shows how all of us can embrace a more creative and authentic life and learn to focus on doing what we love.

THE WEATHER MACHINE
A JOURNEY INSIDE THE FORECAST
Andrew Blum

"A bright look at weather forecasting."
— Kirkus Reviews

The weather is the foundation of our daily lives. It's a staple of small talk, the app on our smartphones, and often the first thing we check each morning. Yet behind these quotidian interactions is one of the most expansive machines human beings have ever constructed — a triumph of science, technology, and global cooperation. But what is this "weather machine" and who created it? Written with the sharp wit and infectious curiosity Andrew Blum is known for, The Weather Machine pulls back the curtain on a universal part of our everyday lives, illuminating our relationships with technology, the planet, and the global community.

WHATEVER IT TAKES

Jessica Pack

Sienna has no memory of her late mother, yet every significant day of her life has been marked by a letter written during her last weeks of life, letters that have become a dreaded burden. Sienna begins to ask questions about her mother's terminal illness — questions that reveal inconsistencies in the stories she's been told. The deeper she digs, the more the image of her mother as a contented homemaker warps into something much darker and far more troubling.

THE RULE OF LAW

A Dismas Hardy Novel

John Lescroart

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER

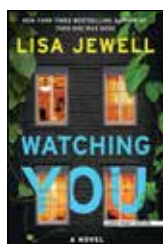

"Lescroart plots so cleverly that he has you believing his split-level thriller is really a single foreshortened novel." — Kirkus Reviews

In this electrifying novel, attorney Dismas Hardy is called to defend the least likely suspect of his career: his longtime, trusted assistant who is suddenly being charged as an accessory to murder.
