THE BEEKEEPER OF ALEPPO

Christy Lefteri

"Nuri's story rings with authenticity, from the vast . . . cruelties of war to the tiny kindnesses that help people survive it. A well-crafted structure and a troubled but engaging narrator power this moving story of Syrian refugees."

— starred, Kirkus Reviews

This unforgettable novel puts human faces on the Syrian war with the immigrant story of a beekeeper, his wife, and the triumph of spirit when the world becomes unrecognizable.

9781432872298 | $30.99 U.S.

General Fiction | Releases 1/8/2020

Available in Wheeler Hardcover 5.

This book called to me the moment I read the description. I saw it as a novel with humor, hope, redemption, family, relationships and a love story, as well. It's a story of an unlikely pair and how, thrown together, they see how much they need each other."

— Selector Becky Bilby, Library Director
for the Sioux Center Public Library, IA

While struggling to heal after her military unit experienced deep loss, Larkin Bennett comes across the diary of Emily Wilson, a young woman who disguised herself as a man to fight for the Union in the Civil War. Larkin finds herself drawn into the life of Emily. In this unlikely scenario, both women learn and grow as they struggle with freedom and what that means for each of them."

— Selector Becky Bilby

THE HEALER'S DAUGHTER

Charlotte Hinger

"With a fascinating island setting . . . and an antagonist who could give Villanelle from Killing Eve a pointer or two, this is Dodd at her brilliant best." — starred, Booklist

Bethany Herbert leaves the South for the new black community of Nicodemus, Kansas, as does the handsome lawyer Jed Talbot, who galvanizes the settlers. But sinister forces come into play through white politicians seeking the black vote, and sabotage by a woman who yearns for the old color hierarchy.
