OCEAN PREY

A Prey Novel

John Sandford

#1 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR
EDITOR'S CHOICE #1 TITLE

An off-duty Coast Guardsman calls in some suspicious behavior from a nearby boat. It's a snazzy craft that slows to pick up a surfaced diver . . . a diver who was apparently alone, without his own boat, in the middle of the ocean. None of it makes sense, and his hunch is proved right when all three Guardsmen who come out to investigate are shot and killed. They're federal officers killed on the job, which means the case is the FBI's turf. When the FBI's investigation stalls out, they call in Lucas Davenport. Davenport will need to bring in every asset, including a detective with a fundamentally criminal mind: Virgil Flowers.

"Mesmerizing." — The Washington Post

A sweeping, masterful debut about a daughter's fateful choice, a mother motivated by her own past, and a family legacy that begins in Cuba before either of them were born. In present-day Miami, Jeanette is battling addiction. Daughter of Carmen, a Cuban immigrant, she's determined to learn more about her family history from her reticent mother. Carmen, still wrestling with the trauma of displacement, must process her difficult relationship with her own mother while trying to raise a wayward Jeanette. In her quest for understanding, Jeanette travels to Cuba to see her grandmother and reckon with secrets from the past.

FINDING FREEDOM

A COOK'S STORY; REMAKING A LIFE FROM SCRATCH

Erin French

"Engaging stories from the kitchen and beyond . . . A canny life story from a determined woman with the gift of vision and the wherewithal to implement it." — starred, Kirkus Review

From Erin French, owner and chef of the critically acclaimed The Lost Kitchen, a life-affirming memoir about survival, renewal, and finding community. Long before The Lost Kitchen became a world dining destination with every seating filled the day the reservation book opens each spring, Erin French was a girl roaming barefoot on a farm, a teenager falling in love with food while working the line at her dad's diner, and a young woman finding her calling as a professional chef. This singular memoir — a classic American story — invites readers to Erin's corner of her beloved Maine to share the real person behind the "girl from Freedom" fairytale.

FIND ME IN HAVANA

Serena Burdick

"A poignant and gripping account of the life of Cuban actress Estelita Rodriguez . . . A deeply affecting tragedy."
— Publishers Weekly

A new historical novel based on the dazzling story of one of Hollywood's most celebrated Hispanic actresses and her daughter's search for closure.

Cuba, 1936: When Estelita Rodriguez sings in a hazy Havana nightclub for the very first time, she's nine years old. From then on, that spotlight of adoration becomes the one true accomplishment no one can take from her. Thirty years later, her daughter, Nina, is blindsided by her mother's mysterious death. Seeking answers, the grieving Nina navigates the troubling memories of their life together and discovers how much Estelita sacrificed to live the American dream on her own terms.

PIRANESI

Susanna Clarke

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER
AWARD-WINNING AUTHOR

"Weird and haunting and excellent."
— starred, Kirkus Reviews

An intoxicating, hypnotic new novel set in a dreamlike alternative reality. Piranesi's house is no ordinary building: its rooms are infinite, its corridors endless, its walls are lined with thousands of statues. Within the labyrinth of halls, an ocean is imprisoned; waves thunder up staircases, rooms are flooded in an instant. But Piranesi is not afraid; he lives to explore the house. There is one other person in the house — someone who visits Piranesi and asks for help with research into A Great and Secret Knowledge. Then evidence emerges of another person, and a terrible truth begins to unravel, revealing a world beyond the one Piranesi has always known.

THE CHILDREN'S TRAIN

Viola Ardone

INTERNATIONAL BESTSELLER

"[A] beautifully crafted story."
— Library Journal

Though Mussolini and the fascists have been defeated, the war has devastated Italy, especially the south. Seven-year-old Amerigo lives with his mother Antonietta in Naples, surviving on odd jobs and his wits. One day, Amerigo learns that a train will take him away from the rubble-strewn streets to spend the winter with a family in the north, where he'll be safe and have warm clothes and food to eat. Amerigo's journey is a story of memory, indelible bonds, and self-exploration, and an examination of what family can truly mean. Ultimately Amerigo comes to understand that sometimes we must give up everything, even a mother's love, to find our destiny.

HOMELAND ELEGIES

Ayad Akhtar

PULITZER PRIZE-WINNING AUTHOR

ONE OF THE NEW YORK TIMES 10 BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR

ONE OF BARACK OBAMA'S FAVORITE BOOKS OF 2020

ANDREW CARNEGIE MEDAL FOR EXCELLENCE FINALIST

ON OVER 10 BEST BOOK LISTS

A deeply personal work, Homeland Elegies blends fact and fiction to tell a story of longing and dispossession in the world that 9/11 made. In a book that's part family drama, part social essay, part picaresque novel, Ayad Akhtar forges a new narrative voice to capture a country in which debt has ruined countless lives and the gods of finance rule, where immigrants live in fear, and where the nation's unhealed wounds wreak havoc around the world. Akhtar attempts to make sense of it all through the lens of a story about one family, from a heartland town in America to palatial suites in Central Europe to guerrilla lookouts in the mountains of Afghanistan, and spares no one in the process.

PAPPYLAND

A STORY OF FAMILY, FINE BOURBON, AND THE THINGS THAT LAST

Wright Thompson

INSTANT NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER

"A fast-paced and colorful history of 20th-century Southern culture."

— starred, Publishers Weekly

As a journalist said of Pappy Van Winkle, "You could call it bourbon, or you could call it a $5,000 bottle of liquified, barrel-aged unobtainium." Julian Van Winkle, the third-generation head of his family's business, is swarmed wherever he goes, with people wanting him to sign their bottles of Pappy Van Winkle Family Reserve. Pappyland is the story of how Van Winkle, the caretaker of the most coveted Kentucky Bourbon whiskey in the world, fought to protect his family's heritage and preserve the taste of his forebears, in a world where authenticity, like his product, is in very short supply.

THE DEAD ARE ARISING

THE LIFE OF MALCOLM X

Les Payne and Tamara Payne

NATIONAL BOOK AWARD WINNER
ANDREW CARNEGIE MEDAL FOR EXCELLENCE
LONGLISTED

"Monumental . . . An extraordinary and essential portrait of the man behind the icon."

— starred, Library Journal

Les Payne, the Pulitzer Prize-winning investigative journalist, embarked in 1990 on a nearly 30-year-long quest to interview anyone he could find who had actually known Malcolm X. His goal was ambitious: an unprecedented portrait of Malcolm X, one that would separate fact from fiction. The result is this historic biography that conjures a never-before-seen world of its protagonist, setting Malcolm's life not only within the Nation of Islam but against the larger backdrop of American history. The book traces the life of one of the twentieth century's most politically relevant figures "from street criminal to devoted moralist and revolutionary."

THE NOT SO QUIET LIFE OF CALAMITY JANE

K. Lyn Wurth

Martha Jane Cannary ran through names like whiskey, but one moniker stuck — Calamity Jane. Stranded in a Virginia City mining camp, this orphan blasted through the 1860s West, determined to be noticed and tell her own story. Rowdy and seemingly hell-bent on her own destruction, this devoted friend, jilted lover, sometime wife, and heartbroken mother wandered the West she loved. She shot up saloons, performed in bordellos and Wild West shows, worked when she had to, cared for the sick, and lied about what she couldn't change. This well-researched historical novel vividly revives an original woman of the American West.

THE RED BOOK

A Black Book Thriller

James Patterson and David Ellis

#1 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR
AWARD-WINNING AUTHOR

For Detective Billy Harney, getting shot in the head, stalked by a state's attorney, and accused of murder by his fellow cops is a normal week on the job. When a drive-by shooting on Chicago's west side turns political, he leads the way to a quick solve, but Harney's instincts run deep. As a population hungry for justice threatens to riot, his quest to expose the evil that's rotting the city from the inside out takes him to the one place he vowed never to return: his own troubled past.

ETERNAL

Lisa Scottoline

#1 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

Elisabetta, Marco, and Sandro grow up as the best of friends despite their differences. Their friendship blossoms to love, with both Sandro and Marco hoping to win Elisabetta's heart. But in the autumn of 1937, all of that begins to change as Mussolini asserts his power, aligning Italy's Fascists with Hitler's Nazis and altering the very laws that govern Rome. In time, everything that the three hold dear — their families, their homes, and their connection to one another — is tested in ways they never could have imagined.
