Tess Gerritsen and Gary Braver

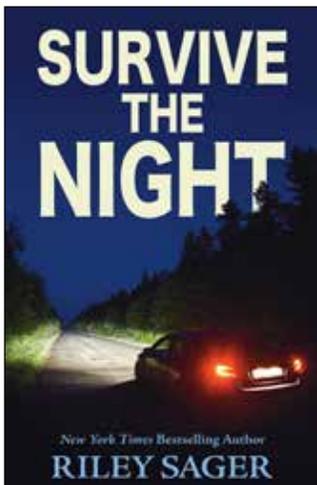

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

EDITOR'S CHOICE #3 TITLE

Taryn Moore is young, beautiful, and brilliant . . . so why would she kill herself? When Detective Frankie Loomis arrives on the scene to investigate the girl's fatal plunge from her apartment balcony, she knows there's more to the story. Her instincts are confirmed when surprise information is revealed that could have been reason enough for Taryn's suicide — or a motive for her murder. To English professor Jack Dorian, Taryn was the ultimate fantasy. After Frankie uncovers a trove of sordid secrets, it becomes clear that Jack may know the truth. He's guilty of deception, but is he capable of cold-blooded murder?

SURVIVE THE NIGHT

Riley Sager

EDITOR'S CHOICE #8 TITLE

November 1991: Josh Baxter, the man behind the wheel, is a stranger to Charlie. They met at the campus ride board. Both have reasons for wanting to get away. For Charlie, it's guilt and grief over the murder of her best friend, a victim of the Campus Killer. For Josh, it's to help care for his sick father. Or so he says. As they travel an empty highway in the dead of night, an increasingly worried Charlie begins to think she's sharing a car with the Campus Killer. What follows is a game of cat and mouse played out during an age when the only call for help can be made on a pay phone and in a place where there's nowhere to run.

BLUSH

Jamie Brenner

"Brenner tackles complex issues including gender equality and the devaluation of women's interests with a light hand, balancing heavy topics with copious descriptions of wine, cheese, and classic romances. [Blush] is sure to please." — Publishers Weekly

A stunning new novel! For decades, the Hollander Estates was Long Island's premier destination for lavish parties. Now the Hollander family fortunes have suffered, and as Vivian Hollander prepares for the arrival of her daughter Leah, and granddaughter Sadie, for their annual summer reunion, she fears it might be their last. When Sadie discovers that her proper Grandma Vivian once ran a book club dedicated to scandalous women's novels, it gives her insight into her family's glory days. Resurrecting the "trashy" book club begins as a distraction for the women, but they might find that the pages contain everything they need to know about how to fight for the life, and love, they deserve.

THE SWALLOWED MAN

Edward Carey

NEW YORK TIMES EDITORS' CHOICE

I am writing this account, in another man's book, by candlelight, inside the belly of a fish. I have been eaten. I have been eaten, yet I am living still.

In the small Tuscan town of Collodi, a lonely woodcarver longs for a son. One day, Geppetto carves for himself a pinewood boy, and his handsome new creation comes magically to life. Pinocchio torments his father, making up stories — whereupon his nose grows before his eyes like an antler. When the boy disappears after one last fight, the father follows a rumor out into the sea, where he's swallowed by a great fish — and consumed by guilt. He hunkers in the creature's belly awaiting the day when he will reconcile with the son he drove away.

THE NARROWBOAT SUMMER

Anne Youngson

"[An] immersive, lyrical account." — Booklist

Meet Eve, who has left her 30-year career to become a Free Spirit; Sally, who has waved goodbye to her indifferent husband; and Anastasia, a defiantly independent narrowboat-dweller, who's suddenly landlocked and vulnerable. Before they know what they've done, Sally and Eve agree to drive Anastasia's narrowboat on a journey through the canals of England. As they glide gently — and not so gently — through the countryside, the eccentricities and challenges of narrowboat life draw them inexorably together. At summer's end, all three women must decide whether to return to the lives they left behind or forge a new path forward.

LAST SUMMER AT THE GOLDEN HOTEL

Elyssa Friedland

"Friedland brings laughs and nuance to the family foibles, and demonstrates a wide range in her convincing narration from the many points of view. Breezy and charming, this is great fun." — Publishers Weekly

In its heyday, The Golden Hotel was the crown jewel of the Catskills vacation scene. For more than 60 years, the Goldman and Weingold families have presided over this glamorous resort which served as a second home for well-heeled guests and celebrities. But the Catskills aren't what they used to be — and neither is the relationship between the Goldmans and the Weingolds. Long-buried secrets emerge, new dramas and financial scandal erupt, and business and pleasure clash when the hotel owners rediscover the magic of a bygone era even as they grapple with what may be their last resort.

GOOD NEIGHBORS

Sarah Langan

NAMED BY GOODREADS AS ONE OF THE MOST ANTICIPATED MYSTERIES AND THRILLERS OF 2021

"A creepy standout for readers who want an extra kick to their suburban dramas." — starred, Booklist

Neighbor against neighbor. Welcome to Maple Street, a picture-perfect slice of suburban Long Island. But when the Wilde family — Arlo, Gertie, and their children — moves in, they trigger their neighbors' worst fears. They don't fit with the way Maple Street sees itself. Though Rhea Schroeder — a lonely college professor repressing a dark past — welcomed Gertie and her family at first, relations went south. As tensions mount, a sinkhole opens in a nearby park, and Rhea's daughter Shelly falls inside. The search for Shelly brings a shocking accusation against the Wildes. Suddenly, it's one mom's word against the other's in a court of public opinion that can end only in blood.

THAT OLD COUNTRY MUSIC

STORIES

Kevin Barry

AWARD-WINNING AUTHOR

"Barry . . . brings characters to life quickly . . . with his uncanny ear for dialogue . . . [A] thoroughly entertaining collection." — starred, Kirkus Reviews

With three novels and two short story collections published, Kevin Barry has steadily established his stature as one of the finest writers not just in Ireland but in the English language. All of his prodigious gifts of language, character, and setting in these 11 exquisite stories transport the reader to an Ireland both timeless and recognizably modern. Shot through with dark humor and the uncanny power of the primal and unchanging Irish landscape, the stories in That Old Country Music represent some of the finest fiction being written today.

THAT TIME OF YEAR

A MINNESOTA LIFE

Garrison Keillor

With the warmth and humor we've come to know, the creator and host of A Prairie Home Companion shares his own remarkable story. Garrison Keillor looks back on his life and recounts how a Brethren boy with writerly ambitions grew up in a small town on the Mississippi in the 1950s and, seeing three good friends die young, turned to comedy and radio. Through a series of lucky breaks, he founded A Prairie Home Companion and put himself in line for a good life, including mistakes, regrets, and a few medical adventures. Prairie Home Companion lasted 42 years, 1,557 shows, and enjoyed the freedom to do as it pleased for three or four million listeners.

ISBN: 9781432888312 | $30.99 U.S.

THE PLOT

Jean Hanff Korelitz

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR
EDITOR'S CHOICE #8 TITLE

"Deep character development, an impressively thick tapestry of intertwining story lines, and a candid glimpse into the publishing business make this a page-turner of the highest order. Korelitz deserves acclaim for her own perfect plot." — starred, Publishers Weekly

Jake Bonner teaches in a third-rate MFA program. When Evan Parker, his most arrogant student, announces he doesn't need Jake's help because the plot of his book in progress is a sure thing, Jake is prepared to dismiss the boast. Then . . . he hears the plot. When Jake discovers that his former student has died without ever completing his book, Jake does what any writer would do with a story like that. In a few short years, he is wealthy, famous, praised and read all over the world. Then an e-mail arrives: You are a thief, it says. Who was Evan Parker? What is the real story behind the plot, and who stole it from whom?

THE SANATORIUM

Sarah Pearse

INSTANT NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER
REESE'S BOOK CLUB PICK

"Pearse not only creates believably fallible characters, she also vividly portrays the frigid landscape of Le Sommet buffeted by blizzards, and a chilling epilogue cries out for a sequel. Crime-fiction readers will want to keep an eye on Pearse." — starred, Booklist

Le Sommet has always been a sinister place. The former abandoned sanatorium has since been renovated into a five-star minimalist hotel. Elin Warner has taken time off from her job as a detective, so when her estranged brother, Isaac, and his fiancée, Laure, invite her to celebrate their engagement at the hotel, Elin accepts. Arriving in the midst of a threatening storm, Elin immediately feels on edge. When they wake the following morning and discover Laure missing, Elin is under pressure to find her. But no one has realized yet that another woman has gone missing and she's the only one who could have warned them just how much danger they're all in.

THE TRAITOR

V.S. Alexander

Drawing on the true story of the White Rose — the resistance movement of young Germans against the Nazi regime.

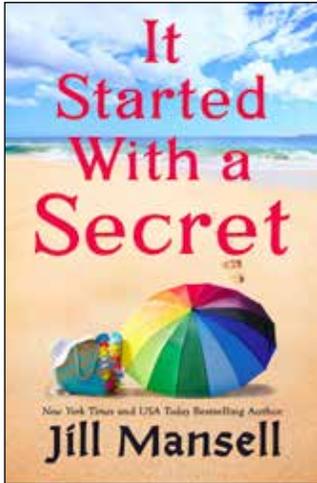

In the summer of 1942, as war rages, a series of anonymous leaflets appears around the University of Munich, speaking out against escalating Nazi atrocities. The leaflets are hidden in public places or mailed to addresses selected at random. Natalya Petrovich, a student, knows who's behind the leaflets — a secret group called the White Rose, led by siblings Hans and Sophie Scholl. Natalya willingly enters the White Rose's circle, and risks everything alongside her friends. Even among those she trusts most, there is no guarantee of safety — and when danger strikes, she must take an extraordinary gamble in her own personal struggle to survive.

ROBERT E. LEE AND ME
 A SOUTHERNER'S RECKONING WITH THE MYTH OF THE LOST CAUSE

Ty Seidule

"[An] absorbing book."
 — starred, Library Journal

Ty Seidule grew up revering Robert E. Lee. From his southern childhood to his service in the U.S. Army, Lee was the greatest man who ever lived, and the Confederates were underdogs who lost the Civil War with honor. Now, as a retired brigadier general and Professor Emeritus of History at West Point, his view has radically changed. Through the arc of Seidule's own life, he seeks a path to understanding why the facts of the Civil War have remained buried beneath layers of myth and even outright lies — and how they embody a cultural gulf that separates millions of Americans to this day.

Nadia Owusu
WHITING AWARD WINNING AUTHOR

"[A] stunning, visceral book." — Booklist

A deeply felt memoir from Nadia Owusu. Young Nadia Owusu followed her father, a United Nations official, from Europe to Africa and back again. The instability wrought by Nadia's nomadic childhood was deepened by family secrets and fractures. Her mother, who abandoned Nadia when she was two, would periodically reappear. Her father, a Ghanaian, died when she was 13. After his passing, Nadia's stepmother weighed her down with a revelation that was either a bombshell secret or a lie. Aftershocks is the way Nadia hauled herself from the wreckage and came to understand that the only ground firm enough to count on is the one written into existence by her own hand.

ON TYRANNY

TWENTY LESSONS FROM THE TWENTIETH CENTURY

Timothy Snyder

#1 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER

WASHINGTON POST NOTABLE BOOK

A historian of fascism offers a guide for surviving and resisting America's turn towards authoritarianism. The Founding Fathers tried to protect us from the threat they knew, the tyranny that overcame ancient democracy. Today, our political order faces new threats, not unlike the totalitarianism of the twentieth century. We are no wiser than the Europeans who saw democracy yield to fascism, Nazism, or communism. Our one advantage is that we might learn from their experience. On Tyranny is a call to arms and a guide to resistance, with invaluable ideas for how we can preserve our freedoms in the uncertain years to come.

DEPUTIZED

T. L. Davis

Frank Whittaker is just an unemployed trail hand trying to recover from a night of celebration when he witnesses a bank robbery and is deputized into a posse to track the outlaws. Frank is reluctant and resentful until he finds a way to make money at it by signing on as a guide for a U.S. marshal in pursuit of the same bank robbers, Dandy Jim Beudreaux and his gang. Marshal Dayton Howard and his manhunters leave a bloody trail in their pursuit of Dandy Jim through northern New Mexico and southern Colorado, a trail that forces Frank to confront his own morality. But capturing Dandy Jim is only part of the puzzle Frank will have to solve before justice can be done.

THE WOLF HUNT: A TALE OF THE TEXAS BADLANDS

A Derrick Miles Mystery

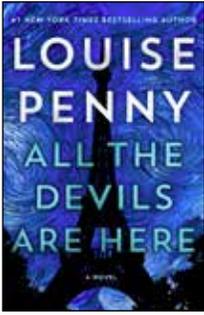

Will Brandon

In the desolate Croton Breaks of West Texas, a spectral creature with a six-inch pawprint has spooked livestock of late. When British-born cattle baron Basil Wolverton is found dead outside his own gate, cowhands and nesters whisper of an ancestral curse, the dire wolf of legend. Sir Basil's executor calls in detective Derrick Miles and his assistant Dr. Frank Hooper to deduce whether there's been a crime committed . . . or some diabolical force at work. The Wolf Hunt reimagines Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's tale, The Hound of the Baskervilles, with a Texas twist on a murderous beast, a fugitive outlaw, greed and grit, affairs of the heart, and a landscape yet untamed.

NINE LIVES

Danielle Steel

INTERNATIONAL BESTSELLING AUTHOR

After a carefree childhood, Mary Margaret Kelly came of age in the shadow of grief. Her father, a dashing daredevil Air Force pilot, died and she saw her mother struggle to put their lives back together. As the family moved from one city to the next, her mother warned her to beware of daredevil men and avoid risk at all cost. Following her mother's advice, Maggie sought out all the things her mother had lost — a predictable partner, a stable home, and a regular paycheck. Until tragedy struck again. Now on her own, feeling a sense of adventure for the first time, Maggie decides to face her fears. But when her recent travels reconnect her with a thrill-seeking past boyfriend, she becomes terrified that rushing into love and sharing his life may very well end in disaster.

Debbie Macomber

#1 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

It's been nearly six years since Julia Jones had her heart broken. After her husband became involved with another woman, she did everything she could to save their marriage, to no avail. Now, having settled into her new community and sold her successful interior design business, she's embraced a fulfilling new life, one that doesn't seem to need a man in it. Her beloved father's trusty saying is ringing truer than ever: It's better this way. When Julia meets a handsome new resident in the building's exercise room, she can't help but be drawn to him. As she and Heath, a divorcé himself, begin to grow close, their friendship blossoms into an unexpected love. When a dramatic revelation threatens the happiness they've found, Julia and Heath must reconcile their love for their children with their love for each other. If they can't, their bright future together may be nothing but a dream.

THIS IS YOUR MIND ON PLANTS

Michael Pollan

#1 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

In This Is Your Mind on Plants, Michael Pollan dives deep into three plant drugs — opium, caffeine, and mescaline — and throws the fundamental strangeness, and arbitrariness, of our thinking about them into sharp relief. Exploring and participating in the cultures that have grown up around these drugs while consuming them, Pollan reckons with the powerful human attraction to psychoactive plants. Why do we go to such great lengths to seek these shifts in consciousness, and then why do we fence that universal desire with laws and customs and fraught feelings?
