

FUEL PROFESSIONAL GROWTH

Empower growth by providing continuous opportunities for just-in-time professional development. With Gale eBooks, you can offer unlimited, simultaneous access to digital content that fits into busy schedules and aligns with your library's goals. Explore our curated collection of relevant, bestselling professional development titles from the American Library Association.

Cataloging Correctly for Kids: An Introduction to the Tools and Practices
Michele Zwiarski, Joanna F. Fountain, and Marilyn McCroskey | 2021
9780838949948

In the face of rapidly evolving challenges, library leaders must embrace change and establish strategic priorities. This book takes an interconnected and specific approach to strengthening the library environment based on user experience principles.

Five Steps of Outcome-Based Planning and Evaluation for Youth Services
Melissa Gross, Cindy Mediavilla, and Virginia Walter | 2022
9780838938324

Outcome-based planning and evaluation (OBPE) help youth services stay grounded in producing desired outcomes and adapt to changing conditions. This book outlines five simple steps to help youth services staff integrate OBPE into their work.

Compact Copyright: Quick Answers to Common Questions
Sara R. Benson | 2021 | 9780838938034

In this guide, lawyer, copyright librarian, and iSchool instructor Benson presents succinct explanations for copyright questions and resources for digging deeper. The title is ideal for providing on-the-fly reference information and staff training.

Fundamentals of Planning and Assessment for Libraries
Rachel A. Fleming-May and Regina Mays
2021 | 9780838937815

With more than a decade of experience, Fleming-May shares her planning and assessment guidelines to help librarians find success in organizational efforts, raise the library's profile, and strengthen its position among stakeholders and the community.

Cultural Humility
David Hurley, Sara Kostecky, and Lori Townsend | 2022
9780838949412

This title outlines the core tenets of cultural humility, an emerging approach to diversity, equity, and inclusion in libraries that asks us to recognize the limits of our knowledge, educate ourselves about power imbalances, and commit to making change.

Going Virtual: Programs and Insights from a Time of Crisis
Sarah Ostman | 2021 | 9780838948804

In this title, Ostman and ALA's Public Programs Office (PPO) present a curated selection of successful library programs, most of them virtual, which helped create connection, support learning, spark conversation, and entertain during the pandemic.

Data Literacy in Academic Libraries: Teaching Critical Thinking with Numbers
Julia Bauder | 2021
9780838937501

Offering readers a roadmap for teaching data literacy at the undergraduate level, this volume shows how librarians can partner with faculty to help students learn to access, interpret, critically assess, manage, handle, and ethically use data.

Hopeful Visions, Practical Actions: Cultural Humility in Library Work
David Hurley, Sara Kostecky, and Lori Townsend | 2023 | 9780838949801

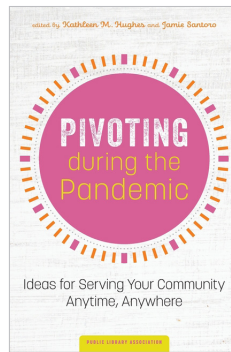

Cultural humility is a practice of critical self-reflection and commitment to redressing structural inequities and power imbalances. This book demonstrates how cultural humility can make lasting impacts on diversity, equity, and inclusion in libraries.

Library Programming for Autistic Children and Teens

Amelia Anderson | 2021 | 9780838938058

This updated, comprehensive resource offers guidance for librarians to understand and serve autistic patrons, focusing on step-by-step programming for children and teens in both public library and K-12 educational settings.

Pivoting during the Pandemic: Ideas for Serving Your Community Anytime, Anywhere

Kathleen M. Hughes and Jamie Santoro | 2021 | 9780838949894

Featuring several real-life examples of how libraries transitioned to virtual services during the pandemic, this collection from the Public Library Association (PLA) and ALA Editions offers inspiration for leaders who aim to deliver a 24/7 library.

Maker Literacies for Academic Libraries: Integration into Curriculum

Katie Musick Peery | 2020 | 9780838949849

This book empowers academic librarians and makerspace staff to partner with faculty in curriculum development to bridge the gap between students' subject-based course content and the interdisciplinary knowledge they can gain through making.

Responding to Rapid Change in Libraries: A User Experience Approach

In the face of rapidly evolving challenges, library leaders must embrace change and establish strategic priorities. This book takes an interconnected and specific approach to strengthening the library environment based on user experience principles.

Managing Data for Patron Privacy: Comprehensive Strategies for Libraries

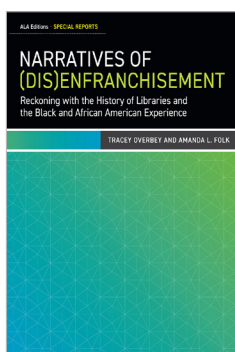

Libraries are not exempt from the potential dangers of data breaches or leaks. This guide shares concrete action steps for putting the ethical management of data into practice, following two common public and academic library cumulative case studies.

Rightsizing the Academic Library Collection

Mary Miller and Suzanne Ward | 2021 | 9780838992746

"Rightsizing" applies a scalable, rule-based strategy to help academic libraries balance stewardship of spaces and the collection. This title addresses new insights from the past five years to help librarians practice rightsizing with confidence.

Narratives of (Dis)Enfranchisement: Reckoning with the History of Libraries and the Black and African American Experience

Amanda Folk and Tracey Overbey | 2022 | 9780838949924

This book traces the hidden history of Africa's contributions to libraries and educational institutions, the racist legacies of libraries, and practical takeaways to unpack the role of race in librarianship and library users' experiences.

Serving Patrons with Disabilities: Perspectives and Insights from People with Disabilities

Kodi Laskin | 2023 | 9780838939550

Offering practical guidance that complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), this book showcases real-world stories that illustrate ways to provide excellent customer service and a safe environment to all patrons regardless of ability.

Narratives of (Dis)Engagement: Exploring Black and African American Students' Experiences in Libraries

Amanda Folk and Tracey Overbey | 2022 | 9780838949931

Sharing findings of a qualitative research study exploring the library experiences of Black and African American undergraduate students, this book makes recommendations for developing an antiracist organization, providing equitable services, and more.

Ready to fuel professional growth?

Learn more and explore eBook titles to support your library's goals at gale.com/ala-pdebooks.

