HEARTBREAK HOUSES
Gloria had lived with foster-parents for the first six years of her life. This Court of Appeal, in its decision, insisted on taking her away. A stepfather had given her a positive before she could be free from her foster-mother's arms.

Jean, aged 11, had been with her foster-parents for 11 years. She had never known her own parents. She was taken home by her foster-parents to see her own parents.

Maine, aged 16, had been living with her foster parents. His foster parents had been acting "father" to the couple. They were now going to Britain to see his own parents.

Happiness

Sister's home is not as close to her foster-mother's home as her own home was to her. She went to school. She went to church. She went to the cinema. She went to the library. She went to the park. She went to the zoo.

The house is not as close to her foster-parents' home as her own home was to her. She went to school. She went to church. She went to the cinema. She went to the library. She went to the park. She went to the zoo.

But Mrs. Hoyer's home is a special place. She goes there when she is feeling low. She goes there when she is feeling happy. She goes there when she is feeling sad.

They would find another home than her foster-home. They would find another home than her own home. They would find another home than her foster-home. They would find another home than her own home.

Haste

There is a desperate situation of foster-cases. But this is not as close to her foster-mother's home as her own home was to her. She went to school. She went to church. She went to the cinema. She went to the library. She went to the park. She went to the zoo.

Thank you for your patience at the moment. I believe that there is a child that realises the dangers in a foster-home. I believe that there is a child that realises the dangers in a foster-home.

But never does this do any good. He is learning and losing foster-child is foster-child's mother's heart.

Hysteria

But in all too many cases it is too late. It is too late when the approach of a child's 'new home' is affecting both.

Whose child should have the right to determine who is to be a foster-parent? The child should have the right to determine who is to be a foster-parent.

When the foster-child is not happy in his home, it is too late. He is learning and losing foster-child is foster-child's mother's heart.

Tory hopes

By WALTER TERRY, Daily Mail Political Correspondent

The Tory Party is now gearing up for the election this week. And this is the first time that the party has been able to do this in 20 years.

Petrol may go up 4d

By RICHARD HARD

PETROL is likely to go up between 5d and 6d in the New Year. Mr. John Collier, secretary of the National Association, which represents the garages, said yesterday: "We expect to see petrol prices rise."

If a garage is to meet its costs and overheads, it is likely to be necessary to increase petrol prices by 5d or 6d. The association is already raising the price of petrol.

"The costs of fuel and lubricants have increased during the past year. It is necessary for the garage to pass on these costs to the customer."
