Police swoop on isolated Leatherslade Farm

Hide-out of Great Train Robbery gang

At the back of Leatherslade Farm, near Brill, Bucks, which was discovered yesterday as the hideout used by the gang that carried out the £2,500,000 mail train robbery at Cheddington, Det. Sgt. Malcolm Powell, head of the Beds CIB, inspect an unfinished pit dug by the robbers.

Right: A spade left by the gang in the 50 deep, 40 wide forty-day pit.

The half-mile long track linking the isolated farm buildings with the R4013, Thame-Bicester road (background).

Det. Sgt. Gerald McArthur, of Scotland Yard, standing by the rough track near the farm buildings.
