

the Exchange country & deprive us of great part of our specie, Many Bankers & Goldsmiths having already shut up shop, & as there is a run begun upon them, we fear it will not stop before others are brought to y^e same condition,

In so general a calamity as this would prove, we dread the consequences it might have to your Majesty's government, & fear the hopes of your Enemys both at home & abroad to make some to y^e Credit of

But as y^e
If the advantage
they must be o Stocks at any may be so cro
this expedient and if it shou effect at presen answer how continue.

We doe
all Duty & sh it to your Ma

STATE PAPERS ONLINE, 1714-1782

MILITARY AND NAVAL AND THE REGISTERS OF THE PRIVY COUNCIL

A DIGITAL PRIMARY SOURCE ARCHIVE SEARCH THE LIBRARY DATABASE

STATE PAPERS ONLINE 1714-1782

MILITARY AND NAVAL AND THE REGISTERS OF THE PRIVY COUNCIL

We apprehend that the La may turn against this country deprive us of great part of our Many Bankers & Goldsmiths already shut up shop, & as it is a ruin begun upon them, we fear it will not stop before it are brought to y^e same condi

It so general a calamity this would prove, we dread the
consequences it might have to your Majestys government, & the hopes of your Enemys both home & abroad to make some