

Gale Primary Sources

Start at the source.

ARCHIVES OF SEXUALITY & GENDER:

LGBTQ History and Culture Since 1940, Part II

Trace LGBTQ culture across the decades. Connect students, educators, and researchers to a vast resource containing rare and unique documentation of LGBTQ history.

Fully searchable periodicals, newsletters, manuscripts, government records, organisational papers, correspondence, an international selection of posters, and other primary source materials for this milestone digital programme were selected by an advisory board consisting of leading scholars and librarians in Sexuality and Gender Studies.

Administrative Files, 1992-1999. Clippings: Portfolio, 1987-1993. ONE National Gay & Lesbian Archives. Archives of Sexuality & Gender

DISCOVER GROUPS ON THE FRINGES OF MAINSTREAM

LGBTQ History and Culture Since 1940, Part II provides coverage of underrepresented communities through access to key publications. This second instalment in the series highlights groups often excluded - even within the LGBT community - and enables users to draw new connections across the development of LGBTQ culture and activism.

OPEN UP A VAST DIGITAL COLLECTION

The content will include approximately one million pages of primary source material aligned with LGBTQ history and related research areas.

COVER IMPORTANT TOPICS

Explore periodicals of record worldwide that cover regional communities; underrepresented communities; Lesbian feminist groups; non-profit organisations that forwarded the LGBTQ movement; the evolution of Civil Rights in the LGBTQ community; and legislation and court cases.

DISCOVER NEW CONNECTIONS

Integrate content from complementary primary source products within the Gale Primary Sources platform, uncovering valuable connections between history and the issues facing us today.

SUPPORT KEY DISCIPLINES WITH AN ARRAY OF MATERIALS

Periodicals, personal papers, manuscripts, photographs, ephemera, and a variety of other content types offer insight into topics surrounding History, Psychology, Sociology, LGBT and Queer Studies, Women's and Gender Studies, Political Science, and American and British Studies.
