

<http://gdc.gale.com/archivesunbound/>

U.S. MIDDLE EAST PEACE POLICY AND AMERICA'S ROLE IN THE MIDDLE EAST PEACE PROCESS, 1989-1993

---

This collection contains Bush Presidential Records from a variety of White House offices. These files consist of letters of correspondence, memoranda, coversheets, notes, distribution lists, newspaper articles, informational papers, published articles, and reports from the public, the Congress, Bush administration officials, and other various federal agencies primarily regarding American Middle East peace policy and the United States' role in the many facets of the Middle East peace process.

Date Range: 1989-1993

Content: 93,234 images

Source Library: George H.W. Bush Library

Detailed Description:

This collection contains Bush Presidential Records from a variety of White House offices. These files consist of letters of correspondence, memoranda, coversheets, notes, distribution lists, newspaper articles, informational papers, published articles, and reports from the public, the Congress, Bush administration officials, and other various federal agencies primarily regarding American Middle East peace policy and the United States' role in the many facets of the Middle East peace process. There are letters sent by the members of a variety of Jewish, Muslim, and Christian Interest groups, as well as Senators, Congressman, and civilians expressing concerns and/or support for the Bush administration's policies in relation to Israeli-Palestinian relationships, potential loan guarantees to Israel for the settlement of Jewish immigrants, other U.S. humanitarian efforts in the Middle East, and the highly debated issues regarding the division of Israel in Jerusalem, as well as the divisions around the Gaza strip, West Bank, and other designated areas considered "occupied territories" and "settlements". Unsolicited advice and various viewpoints are routinely provided in these correspondences in hopes of influencing various policies with Israel, as well as Bush administration policies for peace in the Middle East. Often, letters are accompanied by informational papers, newspaper articles, and other case study reports in support of ideas being presented. There are often replies offered by various White House offices defending the Bush administration's policy and giving general thanks for concern and inquiry. The drafting of these replies among the various executive branch offices generates routine administrative paperwork, such as the mentioned above memoranda, coversheets, notes, and distribution lists. These replies were most often written by various members of the State Department and the Office of Legislative Affairs and subsequently sent to White House which generated "robo" letters to provide general, non-sensitive responses to the variety of issues related to the Middle East. Records released from the National Security Council files, White House Counsel's Office, and White House Office of Public Liaison within this request primarily consist of profile and coversheets, which usually describe the various inter-agency attachments regarding Middle East peace topics and policies discussed or implemented during the Bush administration that have been closed for National Security classification and/or other FOIA exemptions.

Publisher's Note: This collection comprises FOIA Requests 2003-0255-F, 2003-0256-F, 2003-0257-F, 2003-0258-F, 2003-0259-F, 2003-0260-F, 2003-0261-F, and 2003-0262-F, filed by the George H.W. Bush Library. All available documents, including those subsequently-opened and interfiled at the time of scanning, have been included. There are a number of individual documents that remain classified or unprocessed. "Document Withdrawal/Redaction Sheets" have been included in this collection. These withdrawal/redaction sheets itemize documents that have been withdrawn due to either national security or privacy restrictions, by the staff of the George H.W. Bush Presidential Library.