China from Empire to Republic
Records of the Maritime Customs Service of China (1854–1949)
ABOUT THE ARCHIVE

China from Empire to Republic: Records of the Maritime Customs Service of China 1854–1949 provides an excellent primary source collection, mainly in English, for the study of China and its relations with the Imperial West in the late Qing and Republican periods. Sourced from the Second Historical Archives of China (Nanjing), the records included in this collection – official correspondence, despatches, reports, memoranda, and private and confidential letters – constitute invaluable and often unique evidence of Chinese life, economy, and politics through the Taiping Rebellion, the Boxer Rebellion, the Revolution of 1911, the May 30 Movement, the two Sino-Japanese Wars, and the Chinese Civil War.

The ability to cross-search this collection with other Asian Studies collections such as China from Empire to Republic: Missionary, Sinology, and Literary Periodicals and NCCO: Asia and the West through Gale Primary Sources opens unprecedented opportunities for scholarship and discovery.
