The value of this archive lies in its reach, offering comprehensive coverage of the latest and most important publications in multiple languages. Many of the world’s most notable writers, critics and thinkers have contributed to the TLS, making it a rich resource for following the developments of debate, opinion and perspective over the past 110 years.
A UNIQUE RECORD OF DEBATE AND DISCOVERY ACROSS ALL AREAS OF THE HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCES

Founded in 1902 as a supplement to The Times (London), for more than 100 years the Times Literary Supplement has forged a reputation for fine writing, literary discoveries and insightful debate. By the mid-20th century the TLS had developed into a truly international publication, with contributors from every region of the world, coupled with a wider interest in subjects within (and often beyond) the social sciences and humanities. From Anglo-centric beginnings in 1902, by the mid-20th century the TLS had developed into a truly international publication, with contributors from every region of the world.
