This fully searchable digital archive provides access to foreign, comparative, and international titles, including the works of some of the great legal theorists, foreign legal treatises from a variety of countries, and books that compare legal systems, including ancient, Roman, Jewish, and Islamic law. This collection includes pre-1926 treatises and similar monographs, covering many countries across the world.

For more information on this archive, visit gale.com/searchcomparativelaw