Have you thought about digital resources for this topic?

Gale Primary Sources
Start at the source.

The Making of the Modern World:
Part III: 1890-1945

Number of pages
Over 1.2 million
This fully searchable digital archive provides access to monographs and periodicals from the prestigious Senate House and Goldsmiths’ Libraries, offering transnational coverage in political economy. The works included are of interest to scholars in European and world history past the First World War, the Great Depression, and the Second World War, covering the key events that have shaped the modern world and the social forces unleashed by the economy.

For more information on this archive, visit gale.com/searchmodernworld3