Have you thought about digital resources for this topic?

Gale Primary Sources
Start at the source.

Nineteenth Century Collections Online:
Europe and Africa: Commerce, Christianity, Civilization, and Conquest

Number of pages
Over 820,000
This fully searchable digital archive provides access to monographs, manuscripts, and newspapers that cover key issues of economics, world politics, and international strategy. It covers exploration and missions from the early 19th century through the Conference of Berlin in 1884 and the subsequent scramble for Africa, providing information on explorers, politicians, evangelists, journalists, and tycoons blinded by romantic nationalism or caught up in the competition for markets and converts.

For more information on this archive, visit gale.com/searchncceurope