We are currently trialling this archive

Indigenous Peoples: North America
This fully searchable digital archive provides access to primary source documents covering the political, social, and cultural history of native peoples from the 16th century into the 20th century, sourced from both American and Canadian institutions, as well as direct-from-source from newspapers from various tribes and Indian-related organizations. The collection also features indigenous-language materials, including dictionaries, bibles, and primers, illustrating the fabric of the North American story with unprecedented depth and breadth.