The Making of Modern Law: Legal Treatises 1800-1926
This fully searchable digital archive provides access to hidden or previously inaccessible sources from the 19th and early 20th centuries that cover U.S. and British law. It covers the most significant and influential legal writers, trends, cases and materials, providing access to materials which have been limited for modern scholars. The material permits the continuing study of legal development after the 19th century and illuminates the origins of many topics that arose in the 20th century.
