This fully searchable digital archive provides access to rare government reports, diplomatic correspondence, periodicals, newspapers, treaties, trade agreements, NGO papers, and more. It also includes personal letters and diaries, offering first-hand accounts and the human side of international politics, as well as nautical charts, maps, ledgers, company records, and expedition and survey reports from 1790 to 1949. It supports, among many others, research in British and U.S. foreign policy and diplomacy; and Asian political, economic, and social affairs.
