We are currently trialling this archive

Nineteenth Century Collections Online: Children’s Literature and Childhood
Search for this archive on your library database

Number of pages
Over 2.2 million

This fully searchable digital archive contains texts from Europe, Asia, and North America, documenting the growth of children’s literature within the context of legal and sociological developments. It includes content from the U.K. National Archives (material on child welfare and reform, education, juvenile health, and juvenile crime and detention); the British Library, (monographs related to education, fiction and periodicals for children); and the Hine Collection of photographs, which depict child labour in America.

For information on this archive, visit gale.com/discovernccochildren

@GaleEMEA