We are currently trialling this archive

Picture Post
Historical Archive 1938-1957

Various source media, Picture Post Historical Archive 1938-1957
The Picture Post is one of the most iconic newspapers published in Britain. During that time it defined the style of photojournalism in the 20th century. It produced some of the most powerful and iconic images of the era, and the mission of the paper to tell a story in pictures is never more powerfully felt than in its coverage of international events.

For information on this archive, visit gale.com/discoverpicturepost