We are currently trialling this archive

Slavery and Anti-Slavery:
Part IV: Age of Emancipation
This fully searchable digital archive provides access to correspondence, speeches, plays, financial papers, newspaper clippings, scrapbooks, telegrams, memoranda, legal documents, diaries, and journals. It includes rare documents relating to emancipation in the U.S., Latin America, and the Caribbean, covering activities of the federal government in dealing with former slaves, views of political parties, post-war problems with the South, documents of the British and French government on the slave trade, and reports from the West Indies and Africa.

For information on this archive, visit gale.com/discoveryslaveryemancipation