We are currently trialling this archive

Smithsonian Collections Online: Trade Literature & the Merchandizing of Industry
This fully searchable digital archive provides access to nearly one million pages of primary source content, containing items selected from the National Museum of American History Archives Center and Smithsonian Libraries. This collection exposes technological advances, architectural advances, societal changes, and business history. It reveals vital aspects of American culture, society, and the history of companies and industries, trends in sectors, and marketing and management techniques.

For information on this archive, visit gale.com/discover Smithsonian trade