The Making of Modern Law: Primary Sources contains a virtual goldmine of information for researchers of American legal history—a fully searchable digital archive of the published records of the American colonies, documents published by state constitutional conventions, state and territorial codes, municipal codes, city charters, law dictionaries, digests, and more. Note that the term "primary sources" is used not in the historian’s sense of a manuscript, letter or diary, but rather in the legal sense of a case, statute or regulation. The collection brings together many important documents that have been lost...

Foreword

This compilation, prepared by the Office of Legislative Counsel, is the latest amended form of the Education Code. For convenience, the code is divided into two volumes. Volume 1 includes the Table of Contents and Sections 1 through 17103. Volume 2 includes the Table of Contents and Sections 17151 to end. Volume 2 also contains Cross-Reference Tables, the Appendix and Indexes. This edition shows all sections as in effect on and after October 5, 1965, the effective date of the statutes enacted at the 1965 First Extraordinary Session of the Legislature. The effective date of the statutes enacted at the 1964 Regular Session was June 28, 1964, at the 1964 First Extraordinary Session was August 22, 1964, and at the 1965 Regular Session—September 17, 1965. When any section has an effective date earlier or later than the 91st day after final adjournment of the session which affected it, the section carries a note expressing that effect. No sections of the code were affected by the statutes enacted at the 1964 Second Extraordinary Session. The Education Code was recodified at the 1959 Regular Session. The recodification was prepared by the Joint Legislative Committee for the Revision of the Education Code which was created by Chapter 2419 of the Statutes of 1957. Pursuant to the Resolution Chapter 197 of the 1959 Regular Session, the main index, cross-reference annotations, and section headings were originally prepared by the University of California at Los Angeles under contract with the Joint Legislative Committee for the Revision of the Education Code. The Office of Legislative Counsel has made no independent check as to the accuracy of these cross-
