When she discovers a child in the snow just outside, she brings the child inside and begins to search for answers. Soon it becomes clear that the farmhouse isn't as isolated as she thought, and someone is willing to do anything to find them.

YOU DON'T KNOW US NEGROES AND OTHER ESSAYS

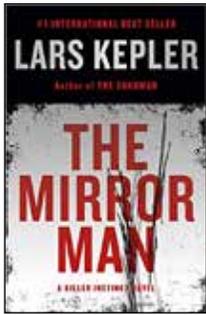

Zora Neale Hurston, Henry Louis Gates, Jr., and Genevieve West

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

You Don't Know Us Negroes is the quintessential gathering of provocative essays from one of the world's most celebrated writers, Zora Neale Hurston. Spanning more than three decades and penned during the backdrop of the birth of the Harlem Renaissance, Montgomery bus boycott, desegregation of the military, and school integration, Hurston's writing articulates the beauty and authenticity of Black life as only she could. These pages reflect Hurston as the controversial figure she was — someone who stated that feminism is a mirage and that the integration of schools did not necessarily improve the education of Black students. Demonstrating the breadth of this revered and influential writer's work, this collection is an invaluable chronicle of a writer's development and a window into her world and mind.

John Douglas and Mark Olshaker

#1 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

On May 31, 1985, Shari Smith was abducted from the driveway of her family home in South Carolina. The abduction rocked her quiet town, Then nine-year-old Debra May Helmick was kidnapped from her yard, confirming the harsh realization that Smith's murder was no random act. A serial killer was evolving, and the only way to stop him would be to use the study of criminal behavior to anticipate his next move before he could kill again. Douglas devised a risky and emotionally fraught strategy to use Shari's lookalike older sister Dawn as bait to draw out the unknown subject. Dawn and her parents courageously agreed.
