THE RECOVERY AGENT
A Gabriella Rose Novel
Janet Evanovich

#1 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR
EDITOR’S CHOICE #1 TITLE

As a recovery agent, Gabriella Rose is hired by individuals and companies seeking lost treasures, stolen heirlooms, or missing assets. But Gabriella's latest job isn't for some billionaire, it's for her own family. Inspired by an old family legend, Gabriella sets off for Peru in pursuit of the Ring of Solomon and the lost treasure of Cortez. This particular job comes with a problem — Gabriella's ex-husband, Rafer. It's Rafer who has the map that possibly points the way to the treasure. The two make a formidable team, and it's going to take a team to defeat the vicious drug lord who's also searching for the mysterious artifact.

THE SUMMER GETAWAY
Susan Mallery

#1 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR
EDITOR’S CHOICE #3 TITLE

With her divorce settlement about to run out and a mortgage she can't afford, Robyn Caldwell needs a plan. But how’s she supposed to think when her daughter has become the most demanding bride ever, her son won't even consider college, her best friend is on the brink of marital disaster, and her ex is making a bad decision that could bring everything crashing down on Robyn's head? When her great-aunt Lillian invites her to Santa Barbara for the summer, Robyn hops on the first plane. The more time Robyn spends with Lillian, the more she sees the appeal in taking chances on dreams, on love, on family. All she has to do is muster the courage to take a chance on herself.

ONE ITALIAN SUMMER
Rebecca Serle
NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

"This daydream of a story affirms what it means to love and be loved. An enchanting book for the last cold days of winter, but also suggest it to readers come summer." — Library Journal

When Katy's mother dies, she's left reeling. To make matters worse, their mother–daughter trip looms. Now she's faced with embarking on the adventure alone. As soon as she steps foot on the Amalfi Coast, Katy begins to feel her mother's spirit. And then Carol appears — in the flesh, healthy, and 30 years old. Katy doesn't understand what's happening — all she can focus on is that she has somehow gotten her mother back. Over the course of one Italian summer, Katy gets to know Carol as a young woman. She's not who Katy imagined she might be, however, and Katy must reconcile the mother who knew everything with the woman who does not yet have a clue.

IN THE MARGINS
ON THE PLEASURES OF READING AND WRITING
Elena Ferrante
NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

In 2020, Claire Luchette in O, The Oprah Magazine described the beloved Italian novelist Elena Ferrante as “an oracle among authors.” Here, in these four crisp essays, Ferrante offers a rare look at the origins of her literary powers. She writes about her influences, her struggles, and her formation as both a reader and a writer; she describes the perils of “bad language” and suggests ways in which it has long excluded women's truth; she proposes a choral fusion of feminine talent as she brilliantly discourses on the work of Emily Dickinson, Gertrude Stein, Ingeborg Bachmann, and many others.

OUR AMERICAN FRIEND
Anna Pitoniak

White House correspondent Sofie Morse quit her job and plans to leave politics behind, but when she gets a call from the office of First Lady Lara Caine, her curiosity is piqued. Lara was born in Soviet Russia and worked as a model before moving to America and marrying the brash future president. When Lara asks Sofie to write her official biography, and to fill in the gaps of her history, Sofie begins to spend more time in the White House, slowly developing a bond with Lara. As Lara’s story unfolds, Sofie wonders why Lara is rehashing such sensitive information. Suddenly Sofie is in the middle of a game of cat and mouse that could have explosive ramifications.

THE DICKENS BOY
Thomas Keneally
NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR
BOOKER-WINNING AUTHOR
Edward Dickens, the 10th child of England’s most famous author Charles Dickens, has consistently let down his parents. Adrift in life, the teenaged boy is sent to Australia in the hopes that he can make something of himself. He soon finds himself in the Outback, surrounded by Aboriginals, colonials, ex-convicts, ex-soldiers, and very few women. Even on the other side of the world, Edward encounters the same rabid veneration of his father that exists in England. Determined to prove to his parents and himself that he can succeed in this vast and unfamiliar wilderness, Edward works hard at his new life amidst various bushrangers, stock agents, and frontier battles.

THE WOMEN OF PEARL ISLAND
Polly Crosby
When Tartelin answers an ad for a personal assistant, she doesn't know what to expect from her new employer, Marianne, an eccentric elderly woman. Marianne lives on a remote island that her family has owned for generations, and for decades her only companions have been butterflies and tightly held memories of her family. But there are some memories Marianne would rather forget, such as when the island was commandeered by the British government during WWII. Now, if Marianne can trust Tartelin with her family's story, she might finally be able to face the long-buried secrets of her past that have kept her isolated for far too long.

THE MISSING PIECE
A Dismas Hardy Novel
John Lescroart
NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR
EDITOR’S CHOICE #6 TITLE
No one mourned when DA Wes Farrell put Paul Riley in prison for the rape and murder of his girlfriend. And no one is happy to see him when he’s released after uncovered evidence pinned the crime on someone else. In fact, Riley soon turns up murdered. To the cops, it’s straightforward: The father of Riley’s dead girlfriend killed the former prisoner. Farrell, now practicing law with Dismas Hardy, agrees to represent the defendant, Doug Rush — and is left in the dust when Rush suddenly vanishes. The search takes PI Abe Glitsky through a hall of mirrors populated by wounded parents, crooked cops, cheating spouses, and vigilantes.

THE BERLIN EXCHANGE
Joseph Kanon
EDGAR AWARD–WINNING AUTHOR

“Genuine suspense, including an exciting variation on the border-crossing theme, combine beautifully with moving psychological drama.” — starred, Booklist

Berlin, 1963. The height of the Cold War. An early morning spy swap at a discreet border crossing. The Communists are trading two American students caught helping people to escape and an aging MI6 operative. On the other side of the trade: Martin Keller, a physicist who disappeared into the English prison system. Keller’s most critical possession: his American passport. Keller’s most ardent desire: to see his ex-wife Sabine and their young son. But he has questions: who asked for him? The KGB? He’s worked for the service long enough to know they want him for something. Something which he can’t learn until he arrives in East Berlin, when suddenly the game is afoot.

Since age 15, Auris Afton Grieg has been trapped in a sinister prison. Now, rumors say the adult version is far worse, so she and some friends stage an escape into the surrounding wastelands. It’s here that Auris’ journey of discovery begins, for she’s rescued by a stranger who claims to be Fae — a magical race Auris had thought to be no more than legend. Odder still, he seems to think Auris is one as well, although the two look nothing alike. Strangest of all, when he brings her to his homeland, she begins to suspect he’s right. Yet how could a woman who looks entirely human be a magical being herself?

THE CORRESPONDENTS
SIX WOMEN WRITERS ON THE FRONT LINES OF WORLD WAR II
Judith Mackrell

“An exhilarating read packed with emotion and genuine humanity. A vivid portrayal of six remarkable women who made history reporting on World War II.” — starred, Kirkus

On the front lines of the Second World War, a contingent of female journalists were barred from combat zones and faced with entrenched prejudice and bureaucratic restrictions, forced to fight for the right to work on equal terms with men. The Correspondents follows six women: Martha Gellhorn, Lee Miller, Sigrid Schultz, Virginia Cowles, Clare Hollingworth, and Helen Kirkpatrick. From chasing down sources and dodging gunfire to conducting love affairs and socializing with luminaries like Eleanor Roosevelt, Picasso, and Man Ray, these six women are captured in all their complexity.

THE FARMER’S LAWYER
THE NORTH DAKOTA NINE AND THE FIGHT TO SAVE THE FAMILY FARM
Sarah Vogel

“Vogel sets this appalling story of a politicized bureaucracy run amok against a rich portrait of North Dakota farm life and its political tradition of rural solidarity.” — Publishers Weekly

In the early 1980s, farmers were suffering through the worst economic crisis to hit rural America since the Great Depression. Desperate, they called Sarah Vogel, a young lawyer. Sarah brought a national class action lawsuit, which pitted her against the Reagan administration’s Department of Justice, in her fight for family farmers’ rights. A story about justice and holding the powerful to account, The Farmer’s Lawyer shows how the farm economy we all depend on almost fell apart and what we can learn from Sarah’s battle as a similar calamity looms large on our horizon once again.

A MEMOIR
Tabitha Lasley

ON 7 RECOMMENDED READ LISTS

“[Lasley’s] whirlwind affair becomes a humanizing subplot and an arresting character study of the prototypical oil rigger . . . The result is a compassionate portrayal of what it takes to survive an inhospitable corner of the world.” — starred, Publishers Weekly

In her mid-thirties and newly free from a terrible relationship, Tabitha Lasley quit her job at a London magazine and poured her savings into a six-month lease on an apartment in Aberdeen, Scotland. She decided to make good on a long-deferred idea for a book about oil rigs and the men who work on them. Why oil rigs? She wanted to see what men were like with no women around. In Aberdeen, Tabitha became deeply entrenched in the world of roughnecks, a teeming subculture rich with brawls, hard labor, and competition. The longer she stayed, the more she found her presence had a destabilizing effect on the men — and her.

ONE OF NY POST’S MUST-HAVE BOOKS FOR FALL 2021
ONE OF TOWN & COUNTRY’S MUST-READ BOOKS OF FALL
ONE OF WALL STREET JOURNAL’S 12 BOOKS TO READ FOR OCTOBER 2021
For years, Truman Capote attempted to write what he believed would have been his magnum opus. When he eventually published a few chapters in Esquire, the thinly fictionalized lives (and scandals) of his closest famous female confidantes were laid bare for all to see, and he was banished from their high-society world forever. Laurence Leamer re-creates the lives of these fascinating swans, their friendships with Capote and one another, and the doomed quest to write what could have been one of the greatest novels of the 20th century.

LIBRARYREADS SELECTION
LIBRARY JOURNAL EDITORS' PICK
“A stunning and immersive tale of psychological horror. It’s terrifyingly real and physically upsetting, yet, like the best of the genre, it leaves space for hope to ultimately shine through.” — starred, Library Journal
In a boarded-up house on a dead-end street at the edge of the wild Washington woods lives a family of three. A teenage girl who isn't allowed outside, not after last time. A man who drinks alone in front of his TV, trying to ignore the gaps in his memory. And a house cat who loves napping and reading the Bible. An unspeakable secret binds them together, but when a new neighbor moves in next door, what is buried out among the birch trees may come back to haunt them all.

Kieran Scott
NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR
“Scott's complex story lines come together in an explosive climax.” — Publishers Weekly
Emma Walsh has finally worked up the courage to confront her husband about his drinking, but James never shows up to meet her as planned. The next time Emma sees James, his body lies crumpled amidst the wreckage of his flashy car. Buoyed by the support of her two closest friends, Emma struggles to deal with her grief, complicated by the knowledge that her husband's legacy as an upstanding business owner and family man shines only because so many people, for so long, were so willing to keep his secrets — secrets that twist into new and unexpected shapes as the mysterious details of his last day of life begin to come to light.

ALL HER LITTLE SECRETS
Wanda M. Morris

“Morris deftly combines a creepy Nazi-escape sect with a murderous plot and rounds out the intrigue with a striking commentary on racism, sexual assault, and misogyny.” — Library Journal

Ellice Littlejohn has an Ivy League law degree, a job as a corporate attorney in midtown Atlanta, great friends, and a “for fun” relationship with a rich, charming executive, who just happens to be her boss. But everything changes when Ellice arrives in the executive suite and finds him dead. But instead of grieving this tragedy, people are gossiping, the police are getting suspicious, and Ellice, the company’s lone black attorney, is promoted to replace her boss. When she uncovers shady dealings inside the company, Ellice’s past and present lives collide as she tries to stop a conspiracy far more sinister than she could have ever imagined.

Born with a clubbed foot, Hazel Stillman was sent away as a child and devoted herself to scholarship and education. Working as a teacher in an elite girls' school, she's content with the way her story unfolded. When she hears rumors of the school being sold, however, she knows she must consider all her options. Duncan Penhale thrives on order and process. It would take an impressive woman to love him. Over time, Hazel and Duncan's marriage of convenience becomes more appealing than they had anticipated. At the end of a full year, will they go their separate ways or could an unlikely marriage have found unsuspecting love?

TO ALL THE DOGS I'VE LOVED BEFORE
Pine Hollow • Book 3
Lizzie Shane
AWARD-WINNING AUTHOR
The last person Elinor Rodriguez wants to spend time with is her first love, Levi Jackson, but it seems her mischievous dog has other ideas. Dory slips from the house whenever Elinor's back is turned, and in Pine Hollow, calls about a dog herding cars on Main Street go straight to Levi. The lawman broke Elinor's heart once, now she's determined to move on. As the kid who barely graduated, Levi always believed Elinor was out of his league. Even though he ended their engagement, Elinor still takes Levi's breath away. With help from a four-legged friend, Levi and Elinor may just get the second chance they deserve.

FALCONER'S LAW
Falconer Series • Book 1
Jason Manning

The year is 1837. Hugh Falconer knows it's time to look for new horizons, and he looks westward. Organizing a brigade of mountain men is no easy task but Falconer pulls it off, and he keeps them together as he leads them on a trail of danger across the desert, over savage mountains, through hostile Indian territory, and into California. Now Falconer and his brigade of hardcases have to survive in a hostile new land. Among them is the callow youth named Eben Nall, who was seeking adventure and found much more — a courage he didn't know he had, and a beautiful young Mexican woman he needed more than breath itself.

THE STONE GARDEN: THE EPIC LIFE OF BILLY THE KID
20TH ANNIVERSARY EDITION WITH NEW MATERIAL FROM THE AUTHOR
Bill Brooks

“This is one of the most inventive, moving and memorable western novels in many years.” — starred, Booklist

It's 27 years after the alleged death of Billy the Kid and rumors abound throughout New Mexico and the United States that the Kid is still alive. Those who believe him dead are labeling the Kid's killer, Pat Garrett, a traitor. While Sheriff Garrett expected a hero's reception for his assassination of William H. Bonney, Garrett has become the most despised man in the state with assassins lining up to gun him down. Garrett watches as the Kid's exploits become the stuff of legend, of dime novels novels and of myth that the Kid is alive. When an assassin's bullet finds Garrett, many secrets go to the grave with him. Among those secrets is the identity of his own killer.

VIGILANTE JUSTICE
Preston Lewis
SPUR AWARD-WINNING AUTHOR
Hugh Hampton and his neighbors went to the law, but the law looked the other way. Sheriff Johns had no interest in examining the evidence, but someone had blown up the Gillyard place and killed two men. That man was Lemuel Blunt, once owner of the land at Pecan Creek, and had it fair and square. Now meaner than a junkyard dog, he threatened anyone with a rightful claim. As drought burned out Brown County, Texas, Blunt takes out his revenge. With the sheriff in his pocket, Blunt thought he could drive them all out and get away with murder. Then Hampton took the law into his own hands and vowed to get justice even if he had to hang for it.

Hidden in the depths of 18th-century London, a secret apothecary shop caters to an unusual kind of clientele. Women across the city whisper of a mysterious figure named Nella who sells well-disguised poisons to use against the oppressive men in their lives. But the apothecary’s fate is jeopardized when her newest patron makes a fatal mistake, sparking a string of consequences that echo through the centuries. Meanwhile in present-day London, when aspiring historian Caroline Parcewell stumbles upon a clue to the unsolved apothecary murders that haunted London 200 years ago, her life collides with the apothecary’s— and not everyone will survive.

CITY OF THE DEAD
An Alex Delaware Novel
Jonathan Kellerman

#1 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

Homicide Lt. Detective Milo Sturgis and psychologist Alex Delaware are at a case where a naked young man lies dead in the street, the apparent victim of a collision with a moving van hurtling through suburbia in the darkness. Any thoughts of accidental death vanish when a blood trail leads to a nearby home and a butchered young woman. Is the mystery man out in the street collateral damage or will he turn out to be the key to solving a grisly double homicide? As the psychologist and the detective explore L.A.'s meanest streets, they peel back layer after layer of secrets and encounter a savage, psychologically twisted, almost unthinkable motive for violence and bloodshed.

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

Years ago, when he was a homicide detective with the Seattle Police Department, J. P. Beaumont’s partner, Sue Danielson, was murdered. As Beau rushed to the scene, he urged Jared, Sue's teenage son, to grab his younger brother and flee the house. Now, almost 20 years later, Jared reappears in Beau's life seeking his help once again — his younger brother Chris is missing. Still haunted by the events of that tragic night, Beau doesn’t hesitate to take on the case. Following a lead all the way to the wilds of wintertime Alaska, he encounters a tangled web of family secrets in which a killer with nothing to lose is waiting to take another life.

A Gray Man Novel
Mark Greaney

#1 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

“Excellent . . . Greaney seamlessly adjusts focus between the timelines, jumping from one exhilarating roller-coaster ride to the other. Spy and military thriller fans will be well pleased.” — starred, Publishers Weekly

Before he was the Gray Man, Court Gentry was Sierra Six, the junior member of a CIA action team. In their first mission they took out a terrorist leader, at a terrible price. Years have passed. The Gray Man is on a simple mission when he sees a ghost: the long-dead terrorist, but he’s remarkably energetic for a dead man. A decade of time hasn't changed the Gray Man. He isn’t one to leave a job unfinished or a blood debt unpaid.

THE LIGHTNING ROD
A Zig & Nola Novel
Brad Meltzer
#1 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

When Archie Mint is killed while trying to stop a robbery in his own home, his family is shattered and then shocked to learn he’s been hiding criminal secrets none of them could’ve imagined. While working on Mint’s body, mortician “Zig” Zigarowski discovers something he was never meant to see. That telling detail leads him to Mint’s former top secret military unit and his connection to artist Nola Brown. Following Nola’s trail, he uncovers one of the U.S. government’s most intensely guarded secrets — an undisclosed military facility that dates back to the Cold War and holds the key to something far more sinister: a hidden group willing to compromise the very safety and security of America itself.

ALL THE QUEEN’S MEN
S. J. Bennett
AWARD-WINNING AUTHOR

At Buckingham Palace, the queen must deal with the fallout from the Brexit referendum, a new female prime minister, and a tumultuous election in the United States — yet these prove to be the least of her worries when a staff member is found dead beside the palace swimming pool. Is it truly the result of a tragic accident or is something more sinister going on? Meanwhile, her assistant private secretary, Rozie Oshodi, is on the trail of a favorite painting that once hung outside the queen’s bedroom and appears to have been misappropriated by the Royal Navy and a series of disturbing anonymous letters have begun circulating in the palace. The queen's courtiers think they have it all "under control", but Her Majesty is not so sure. After all, though the staff and public may not be aware, she’s the keenest sleuth among them. Sometimes, it takes a queen's eye to see connections where no one else can.

MOON WITCH, SPIDER KING
Marlon James
NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

In Black Leopard, Red Wolf, Sogolon the Moon Witch proved a worthy adversary to Tracker as they clashed across a mythical African landscape in search of a mysterious boy who disappeared. In Moon Witch, Spider King, Sogolon takes center stage and gives her own account of what happened to the boy, and how she plotted and fought, triumphed and failed as she looked for him. It’s also the story of a century-long feud — seen through the eyes of a 177-year-old witch — that Sogolon had with the Aesi, chancellor to the king. It’s said that Aesi works so closely with the king that together they’re like the eight limbs of one spider. Aesi’s power is considerable — and deadly. It takes brains and courage to challenge him, which Sogolon does for reasons of her own.

SCOUNDREL
Sarah Weinman

In the 1960s, Edgar Smith, in prison and sentenced to death for the murder of teenager Victoria Zielinski, struck up a correspondence with William F. Buckley, the founder of National Review. Buckley, who refused to believe that a man who supported the neoconservative movement could have committed such a heinous crime, began to advocate not only for Smith's life to be spared but also for his sentence to be overturned. So begins a bizarre and tragic tale of mid-century America. Sarah Weinman’s Scoundrel leads us through the twists of fate and fortune that brought Smith to freedom, book deals, fame, and eventually to attempting murder again. In Smith, Weinman has uncovered a psychopath who slipped his way into public acclaim and acceptance before crashing down to earth once again.

NINE LIVES
Peter Swanson
NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR
AWARD-WINNING AUTHOR
Nine strangers receive a list with their names on it in the mail. Nothing else, just a list of names on a single sheet of paper. None of the nine people know or have ever met the others on the list. They dismiss it as junk mail, a fluke — until very, very bad things begin happening to people on the list. First, a well-liked old man is drowned on a beach in the small town of Kennewick, Maine. Then, a father is shot in the back while running through his quiet neighborhood in suburban Massachusetts. A frightening pattern is emerging, but what do these nine people have in common? FBI agent Jessica Winslow, who is on the list herself, is determined to find out. Could there be some dark secret that binds them all together? Or is this the work of a murderous madman? As the mysterious sender stalks these nine strangers, they find themselves constantly looking over their shoulders, wondering who'll be crossed off next.

THE TOBACCO WIVES
Adele Myers
Maddie Sykes is a burgeoning seamstress who's just arrived in Bright Leaf, North Carolina where her aunt has a thriving sewing business. After years of war rations and shortages, Bright Leaf is a prosperous wonderland in full technicolor bloom, and Maddie is dazzled by the palatial homes, and, most of all, her aunt’s glossiest clientele: the wives of the powerful tobacco executives. She soon learns that Bright Leaf isn't quite the carefree paradise that it seems. A trail of misfortune follows many of the women, including substantial health problems, and although Maddie is quick to believe that this is a coincidence, she inadvertently uncovers evidence that suggests otherwise. Maddie wants to report what she knows, but in a town where everyone depends on Big Tobacco to survive, she doesn't know who she can trust — and fears that exposing the truth may destroy the lives of the proud, strong women with whom she's forged strong bonds.

ONE NIGHT ON THE ISLAND
Josie Silver
#1 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR
Spending her 30 birthday alone is not what dating columnist Cleo Wilder wanted, but she plans a solo retreat in the name of re-energizing herself and adding a new perspective to her column. The remote Irish island she's booked gives her a chance to hunker down in a luxury cabin and indulge in some self-care while she figures out next steps. Mack Sullivan is also looking forward to some time to himself. With his life in Boston deteriorating, his soul-searching has brought him to the same Irish island to explore his roots and find some clarity. Unfortunately, a mix-up with the bookings means both have reserved the same one-room hideaway on exactly the same dates. Instantly at odds, Cleo and Mack don't know how they're going to manage until the next weekly ferry arrives. As the days go by, they no longer seem to mind each other's company quite as much as they thought they would.

ANGELS OF THE PACIFIC
Elise Hooper
Tess Abbott, an American Army nurse, has fled the hardships of the Great Depression for the glamour and adventure of Manila. Everything changes when the Japanese Imperial Army invades with lightning speed and devastating results. Tess and her band of nurses serve on the front lines until they are captured as prisoners of war and held behind the high stone walls of Manila's Santo Tomas Internment Camp. When the Japanese occupation of her beloved homeland commences, Flor Dalisay, a Filipina university student, will be drawn into the underground network of resistance, discovering within herself reserves of courage, resilience, and leadership she never knew she possessed. As the war continues, Tess and Flor face danger, deprivation, and terror, leading them into a web of danger as they unexpectedly work together to save lives and win their freedom.
