THE BRIDE WORE WHITE
Amanda Quick

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR
Being Madame Ariadne, Psychic Dream Consultant, wasn't Prudence Ryland's ideal gig, but it paid well which was reason enough to do the work — until she realizes that her latest client intends to kill her. It doesn't seem likely that rumored crime boss Luther Pell or his associate, Jack Wingate, believe her claims of being a target of a ruthless vendetta. So no one is more shocked than Prudence when Jack says he'll help her. Of course, his ideas for helping her involve using her as the bait for a killer, but Prudence feels oddly safe with Jack protecting her. But who will protect Prudence from her growing fascination with this enigma of a man?

THE HALF MOON ★
A NOVEL
Mary Beth Keane
NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR
“Trom frankly tired of Dave Barry being so funny. Yet, he’s done it again to the benefit and delight of all of us. A hilarious new work.” — Steve Martin
Malcolm Gephardt, longtime bartender at the Half Moon, has always dreamed of owning a bar. When his boss is finally ready to retire, Malcolm is inspired to buy the place. He sees potential in the Half Moon and hopes to make it a bigger success — but quickly realizes that his customers don’t like change and that making a profit won’t be easy. Malcolm’s wife Jess has dedicated herself to her law career. But after years of trying to have a baby, she’s struggling to accept the idea that motherhood may not be in the cards for her. She feels her youth beginning to slip away, and while her hopes and expectations fall short of reality, she wonders how to reshape her life.

THE ONLY SURVIVORS
A NOVEL
Megan Miranda
NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR
A decade ago, two vans filled with high school seniors crashed into a Tennessee ravine. The nine students who managed to escape that night were irrevocably changed. A year later, after one of the survivors dies by suicide on the anniversary of the crash, the rest of them make a pact to come together each year to commemorate that terrible night. By the 10th anniversary, Cassidy Bent has worked to distance herself from the tragedy and from the other survivors. But on the day of the reunion, she receives a text with an obituary attached: another survivor is gone. Now they are seven and Cassidy finds herself hurrying back toward the group. Suddenly, they’re facing the threat of closed roads and surging waters . . . again. As they promised long ago, each survivor will do whatever he or she can do to save one another. Won’t they?

SHADOW OF DEATH
A SUSPENSE NOVEL
Heather Graham
NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR
When two hikers go missing outside of Denver, Colorado, FDLE special agent Amy Larson and FBI special agent Hunter Forrest have good reason to suspect foul play. But the agents aren’t prepared for the horror they uncover: a muddy pit littered with corpses. Covered in bite marks. Made by human teeth. Their investigation soon draws them down the rabbit hole of a dangerous cult with a sinister mandate that involves human sacrifices. When more people go missing, it becomes clear the cult’s reach extends beyond state lines, leading Amy and Hunter deep into the Florida Everglades to set a trap, one that stands to risk everything they hold dear, including their lives.

LOCUST LANE
A NOVEL
Stephen Amidon
“Amidon’s compulsively readable, richly plotted crime novel is a tour de force that grabs readers’ attention and doesn’t let go until the final page.” — starred, Booklist
On the surface, Emerson, Massachusetts, is just like any other affluent New England suburb. But when a young woman is found dead in the nicest part of town, the powerful neighbors close ranks to keep their families safe. In this searing novel, Eden Perry’s death kicks off an investigation into the three teenagers who were partying with her that night, each a suspect. Hannah, a sweet girl with an unstable history. Jack, the popular kid with a mean streak. Christopher, an outsider desperate to fit in. Their parents, each with motivations of their own, only complicate the picture: they will do anything to protect their children, even at the others’ expense.

Thriller | Releases 5/3/2023 | Available in Core 4, 5, 6, 7 & 8.
THE LAST RUSSIAN DOLL
A NOVEL
Kristen Loesch

In a faraway kingdom, in a long-ago land . . . a young girl lived happily in Moscow with her sister, father, and eccentric mother who liked to tell fairy tales and collect porcelain dolls. One night, everything changed, and all that remained of that family were the girl and her mother. Now, a decade later and studying at Oxford University, Rosie has an English name, a loving fiancé, and a promising future. After her mother dies, Rosie returns to Russia, armed with little more than her mother’s strange folklore — and a single key. What she uncovers is a devastating family history that spans the 1917 Revolution, the siege of Leningrad, Stalin’s purges, and beyond.

Thriller | Releases 5/3/2023 | Available in Core 6, 7 & 8.

ALL HALLOWS ★
A NOVEL
Christopher Golden

It’s Halloween night, 1984, in Coventry, Massachusetts, and two families are unraveling. Up and down the street, secrets are being revealed, and all the while, mixed in with the trick-or-treaters of all ages, four children who do not belong are walking door to door, merging with the kids of Parmenter Road. These odd children claim that The Cunning Man is coming for them . . . and they want the local kids to protect them. But with families falling apart and the neighborhood splintered by bitterness, who will save the children of Parmenter Road?

DON’T FEAR THE REAPER ★★★
The Indian Lake Trilogy • Book 2
Stephen Graham Jones

Four years after her tumultuous senior year, Jade Daniels is released from prison right before Christmas when her conviction is overturned. MY HEART WILL FIND YOU
A NOVEL
Jude Deveraux

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR
When the world is brought to a standstill in the early days of a global pandemic, Etta Wilmont finds herself stranded in Kansas City. Desperate to secure a roof over her head, Etta crosses paths with Henry Logan, a lonely older man in need of a caretaker. As Etta and Henry settle into a companionable living arrangement, Etta indulges in Henry’s library. The historical accounts of life in the Midwest soon inspire vivid dreams of Kansas City in the 1870s, dreams in which she’s married to a rancher named Maxwell Lawton. More than anything, Etta wonders if the man she’s falling for while she sleeps might be real, might be out there — true love waiting to be found.

California, 1938. When she loses her parents, sixteen-year-old Rosanne moves into Celine and Truman Calvert’s house. Driven by her loneliness she lets down her guard and ends up pregnant. Banished by the Calverts, Rosanne soon finds out she is going to a place far worse than anything she could have imagined. Austria, 1947. Helen Calvert, Truman’s sister, is ready to return to America. But when she arrives after decades working abroad, she is shocked to learn what really happened to the vinedresser’s daughter. In her determination to find Rosanne, Helen discovers that while the war had been won in Europe, there are still terrifying battles to be fought at home.

BLUE MOON HAVEN
The New Americana Series • Book 7
Janet Dailey

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR
Kelly Jenkins heads to Blue Moon, Alabama, believing a new life will heal the two orphaned children in her care. Signing on to revive the drive-in theater seems like a worthy venture, until she discovers the property is in deep disrepair. Still, Kelly takes on the renovation, beginning with an ancient tree that needs to come down. Seth Morgan reluctantly steps in to help Kelly, even offering her and her kids shelter in his home. Soon everyone is bound up in the fate of Blue Moon’s drive-in and the new family in town. Because it looks like the love blooming between Kelly and Seth just may rival any found on the silver screen.

A CALDER AT HEART
The Calder Brand • Book 3
Janet Dailey

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR
“Dailey keeps the pace brisk with dangers both natural and man-made, and her battle-scarred protagonists are easy to root for. Series fans will be well pleased.” — Publishers Weekly
Emotionally ravaged by the loss of his wife and children, former U.S. Army Major Logan Hunter heads to Blue Moon to salvage whatever peace he can. Yet settling into his new home is fraught with challenges, especially since Logan’s land borders the rival Dollarhide spread, pitting Logan against an adversary who stirs him like no other. From her first encounter with Logan, Dr. Kristin Dollarhide feels an instant connection to the sorrow in his beautiful eyes. Despite her instinct to steer clear, Kristin is drawn to the handsome widower. Until the raging conflict takes a tragic turn, threatening all hope for their future.

THE FARWAY WORLD
STORIES
Patricia Engel

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR
“[Engel’s] character-focused short stories are thought-provoking and intense; readers of literary fiction will enjoy this masterfully written collection.” — Library Journal
Two Colombian expats meet as strangers on the rainy streets of New York City, both burdened with traumatic pasts. In Cuba, a woman discovers her deceased brother’s bones have been stolen, and the love of her life returns from Ecuador for a one-night visit. A cash-strapped couple hustles in Miami, to life-altering ends. The Faraway World is a collection of arresting stories from The New York Times bestselling author of Infinite Country, Patricia Engel. Intimate and panoramic, these stories bring to life the liminality of regret, the vibrancy of community, and the epic deeds and quiet moments of love.

ONLY LOVE CAN HURT LIKE THIS
Paige Toon
“[H]ighly readable, emotional prose and a focus on how familial relationships evolve over time.” — Publishers Weekly

When Wren realizes her fiancé is in love with someone else, she thinks her heart will never recover. On the other side of the world, Anders lost his wife four years ago and is still struggling to move on. Wren hopes that spending the summer with her dad and stepfamily on their farm in Indiana will help her heal. There, she and Anders cross paths and their worlds are turned upside-down again. But Wren doesn’t know that Anders is harboring a secret, and if he acts on any feelings he has for Wren it will have serious fall-out for everyone. Walking away would hurt Wren more than she can imagine. But how can she possibly stay?

THE PERFUMIST OF PARIS
A NOVEL
The Jaipur Trilogy • Book 3
Alka Joshi

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR
Paris, 1974. Radha is living in Paris with her husband, Pierre, and their two daughters. She has a position working for a master perfumer, helping to design new fragrances for clients and building her career. Tasked with her first major project, Radha travels to India, where she enlists the help of her sister and the courtesans of Agra — women who use the power of fragrance to seduce, tease, and entice. She’s on the cusp of a breakthrough when she finds out the son she never told her husband about is heading to Paris to find her — upending her carefully managed world and threatening to destroy a vulnerable marriage.

THE WOMAN WITH THE CURE
Lynn Cullen

“Cullen’s portrait of the steadfast, self-sacrificing Dorothy hits home and is made more stirring by the vivid depictions of young polio patients.” — Publishers Weekly

In 1940s and ‘50s America, polio is as dreaded as the atomic bomb. Some of the world’s best minds are engaged in the race to find a vaccine. But Dorothy Horstmann is not focused on beating her colleagues. She just wants the world to have a cure.

Applying the same determination that lifted her from a humble background as the daughter of immigrants, to becoming a doctor, she hunts down the monster where it lurks: in the blood. This discovery of hers catapults her closest colleague to a lead in the race. When his chance to win comes on a worldwide scale, she is asked to sink or validate his vaccine and to decide how much should be sacrificed in pursuit of the cure.

ROUGH SLEEPERS
DR. JIM O’CONNELL’S URGENT MISSION TO BRING HEALING TO HOMELESS PEOPLE
Tracy Kidder

“NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

“A searching, troubling look at the terrible actualities of homelessness.”
— starred, Kirkus Reviews

When Jim O’Connell graduated from Harvard Medical School and was nearing the end of his residency at Massachusetts General Hospital, the chief of medicine made a proposal: Would he defer a prestigious fellowship and spend a year helping to create an organization to bring health care to homeless citizens? Jim took the job because he felt he couldn’t refuse. But that year turned into his life’s calling. In this illuminating book, Tracy Kidder explores how a small group of people have changed countless lives by facing one of American society’s difficult problems instead of turning away.

WAGING A GOOD WAR
HOW THE CIVIL RIGHTS MOVEMENT WON ITS BATTLES, 1954-1968
Thomas E. Ricks

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

“A novel interpretation . . . [and] a thoughtful contribution to the history of the struggle for civil rights in America.” — Kirkus Reviews

In Waging a Good War, Thomas E. Ricks offers a fresh perspective on the civil rights movement of the 1950s and 1960s and its legacy today. He follows Martin Luther King Jr. and other key figures from Montgomery to Memphis, demonstrating that Gandhian nonviolence was a philosophy of active, not passive, resistance. Ricks also highlights lesser-known figures who played critical roles in fashioning nonviolence into an effective tool. Waging a Good War is an indispensable addition to the literature of racial justice and social change — and one that offers vital lessons for our own time.

THE DIARY KEEPERS ★
WORLD WAR II IN THE NETHERLANDS, AS WRITTEN BY THE PEOPLE WHO LIVED THROUGH IT
Nina Siegal

“[A] vivid portrait of the Nazi occupation as it unfolded, providing a wider lens than many Holocaust histories.” — starred, Publishers Weekly

Based on select writings from a collection of more than two thousand Dutch diaries written during World War II, The Diary Keepers illuminates a part of history we haven't seen in quite this way before, from the stories of a Nazi sympathizing police officer to a Jewish journalist who documented daily activities at a transport camp. Searching and singular, The Diary Keepers mines the diaries of ordinary citizens to understand the nature of resistance, the workings of memory, and the ways we reflect on, commemorate, and re-envision the past.

PESTS ★★
HOW HUMANS CREATE ANIMAL VILLAINS
Bethany Brookshire

“Outstanding, possibly mind-changing natural history.” — starred, Kirkus Reviews

Humans have spent so much of our history drawing a hard line between human spaces and wild places. When animals pop up where we don't expect or want them, we respond with fear, rage, or simple annoyance. It's no longer an animal. It's a pest. At the intersection of science, history, and narrative journalism, Pests is a story about human nature, and how we categorize the animals in our midst. Bethany Brookshire's deeply researched and entirely entertaining book will show readers how the pests that annoy us tell us far more about humanity than they do about the animals themselves.

MURDER WITH DARJEELING TEA
A Daisy's Tea Garden Mystery
Karen Rose Smith

When Daisy Swanson arrives at Rumple's Statuary shopping for a birthday present for her beau Jonas, Wilhelm Rumple's cottage looks like something out of a fairy tale. Even the man himself seems like a storybook character. But as a businessman, Rumple is rumored to be as cold and hard as the statues he sells. Maybe that’s why, following a break-in at his cottage, Rumple is found dead in a dog run behind Four Paws Animal Shelter, bashed in the head. Now it's up to Daisy to get the residents of Willow Creek to spill the tea on a man who had some big secrets, so she can find a killer.

A BIG FAT GREEK MURDER
A Goddess of Greene St. Mystery
Kate Collins

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR
“Mean girls, stalkers, and a jealous brother are all fair game as suspects in this clever and amusing mystery.” — Kirkus Reviews

The entire family has been put to work when a big Greek wedding rehearsal is booked at the Parthenon. All hands are needed for rolling grape leaves, layering moussaka, and keeping the bride calm. But then the groom goes M.I.A. and there’s far more to worry about than whether Yiayia’s lemon rice soup has gone cold. Everyone’s appetite is ruined when the groom is found dead, a pair of scissors planted in his back. When the bride accuses Athena’s sister Selene of seducing and stabbing her fiancé, it’s up to Athena to dig up the dirt on the suspects and nip these suspicions in the bud.

PERSEVERANCE
Patrick Dearen

It was 1932, the depths of the Great Depression, and thousands of people rode the rails in search of jobs, homes, and hope. For some, the tracks were a road to nowhere, a dead end in a boxcar or under the wheels. Their fate seemed certain — until Ish Watson grabbed the rungs of a passing freight train. Here in life’s trenches would he meet up with the wayward and the runaways, the dope addicts and the prostitutes, the winos and criminals. The locomotive’s smoke drifted down to cover them all like a shroud, but it was more than death they faced — for this train would not stop until it carried them all to their destinies. And their only hope was Ish’s perseverance.

Seeing him again brings back a flood of memories both happy and sad of her life before the circus, and she recounts the time she spent in the African savannah to Ivan and Bob. In the timeless way that only Katherine Applegate could craft, this highly anticipated novel in verse is the perfect mix of heartfelt and humorous, poignant and sweet. Artist Patricia Castelao returns to the world of Ivan and his friends with gorgeous black-and-white interior illustrations to complete the story.

CITY OF THE DEAD
City Spies • Book 4
James Ponti
NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR
EDGAR AWARD-WINNING AUTHOR
Kat loves logic and order, has a favorite eight-digit number, and can spot a pattern from a mile away. So when a series of cyberattacks hits key locations in London while the spies are testing security for the British Museum, it's clear that Kat's skill for finding reason in what seems like randomness makes her the perfect candidate to lead the job. And while the team follows the deciphered messages to Egypt and the ancient City of the Dead to discover who is behind the attacks and why, Kat soon realizes there's another layer to the mystery. This mission is one of the most complex the group has faced, and it's going to bring about a change to the City Spies.

THE SUMMER OF JUNE
Jamie Sumner
"The novel offers a compassionate portrayal of anxiety's toll and a sweetly supportive mother-daughter relationship." — Kirkus Reviews
Twelve-year-old June Delancey is kicking summer off with a bang. She shaves her head and sets two goals: she will beat her anxiety and be the lion she knows she can be, instead of the mouse everyone sees. And she and her single mama will own their power as fierce, independent females. With the help of Homer Juarez, the poetry-citing soccer star who believes in June even when she doesn't believe in herself, she starts a secret library garden and hatches a plan to make her dreams come true. But when her anxiety becomes too much, everything begins to fall apart. It's going to take more than a haircut and some flowers to set things right. Forget second chances. This is the summer of new beginnings.

Megan E. Freeman
“Madeleine relates her own riveting, immersive story in believable detail, her increasingly sophisticated thoughts, as years pass, sweeping down spare pages in thin lines of verse.” — Kirkus Reviews
When twelve-year-old Maddie hatches a scheme for a secret sleepover with her two best friends, she ends up waking up to a nightmare. She’s alone — left behind in a town that has been mysteriously evacuated and abandoned. With no one to rely on, no power, and no working phone lines or internet access, Maddie slowly learns to survive on her own. Her only companions are a Rottweiler named George and all the books she can read. As months pass, she escapes natural disasters, looters, and wild animals. But Maddie's most formidable enemy is the crushing loneliness she faces every day. Can Maddie's stubborn will to survive carry her through the most frightening experience of her life?

LOLO'S LIGHT
Liz Garton Scanlon
“A poignant coming-of-age story that explores the ripple effects of death, loss, and forgiveness.” — starred, Kirkus Reviews
This is a truth about growing up: Once in your life, sometime after your first memory but before you can drive a car, something is going to happen to you that doesn't happen to anyone else you know. It might be something good. It might be something bad, or special, or funny, or shocking. For Millie, it's something really sad. Lolo, her neighbors' infant daughter, dies unexpectedly, suddenly, inexplicably, on the night Millie babysits. It's not Millie's fault. There's nothing she could have done. And there's nothing she can do now. So how does she go on? She does what you'll do. She finds her way.

THE TRUE STORY OF THE FIRST U.S. WOMEN’S OLYMPIC BASKETBALL TEAM

Andrew Maraniss

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

“A winning look at the creation and legacy of a team that went from underdogs to unstoppable.”
— starred, School Library Journal

Twenty years before women’s soccer became an Olympic sport and the formation of the WNBA, the ’76 U.S. women’s basketball team laid the foundation for the rise of women’s sports in America. Though they were unknowns from small schools, at the time of the ’76 Olympics, the American team included a roster of players who would go on to become some of the most legendary figures in the history of basketball. Packed with thoroughly researched details about the beginnings of U.S. women’s basketball, Inaugural Ballers is the fascinating story of the women who paved the way for girls everywhere.

KNOWING WHAT WE KNOW
THE TRANSMISSION OF KNOWLEDGE: FROM ANCIENT WISDOM TO MODERN MAGIC Simon Winchester

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

With the advent of the internet, any topic we want to know about is instantly available with the touch of a button. With so much knowledge at our fingertips, what is there left for our brains to do? As we empty our minds, will we one day be incapable of thoughtfulness? Winchester explores how humans have attained, stored, and disseminated knowledge. He looks at a whole range of knowledge diffusion — from the cuneiform writings of Babylon to the machine-made genius of artificial intelligence, by way of Gutenberg, Google, and Wikipedia, to the huge Victorian assemblage of the Mundanaeum, the collection of everything ever known, currently stored in a damp basement in northern Belgium.

A BRUTAL RECKONING
ANDREW JACKSON, THE CREEK INDIANS, AND THE EPIC WAR FOR THE AMERICAN SOUTH
Peter Cozzens

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

The Creek War began as an internal conflict among the Creek Indians but became a larger war that shattered Native American control of the Deep South. It led to the infamous Trail of Tears, in which the government forcibly removed Indians from their homeland. The war also gave Andrew Jackson his first combat leadership role, and his newfound popularity after defeating the Creeks would set him on a path to the White House. Cozzens captures the young Jackson, describing a military commander with unbridled ambition, a taste for cruelty, and a fraught sense of honor and duty. Jackson would not have won the war without the help of Native American allies, yet he denied their role and insisted on their displacement.

SMALL MERCIES
A NOVEL
Dennis Lehane
NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR
In the summer of 1974, a heatwave blankets Boston. Mary Pat Fennessey has lived her entire life in the housing projects of “Southie,” the Irish American enclave that adheres to old tradition. One night Mary Pat’s teenage daughter stays out late and doesn’t come home. That same evening, a young Black man is found dead, struck by a subway train under mysterious circumstances. The events seem unconnected. But Mary Pat, propelled by a desperate search for her missing daughter, begins asking questions that bother Marty Butler, chieftain of the Irish mob, and the men who work for him, who don’t take kindly to threats to their business.

New York Times Bestselling Author

In 1761, a King and Queen met for the very first time. They were married within hours. Born a German princess, Charlotte of Mecklenburg-Strelitz was headstrong and intelligent. Though these were not precisely the attributes the British Court had been seeking in a spouse for young King George III, her fire and independence were exactly what she needed, because George had secrets with the potential to shake the foundations of the monarchy. Thrust into her role as a royal, Charlotte learns to navigate the politics of the court, and guard her heart, because she is falling in love with the King. She must learn to rule, and to understand that she has been given the power to remake society. She must fight: for herself, for her husband, and for her new subjects.

THE GUEST
A NOVEL
Emma Cline
NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR
Summer is ending on the East End of Long Island, and Alex is no longer welcome. A misstep at a dinner party, and the older man she's been staying with dismisses her with a ride to the train station and a ticket back to the city. With few resources and a waterlogged phone, but gifted with an ability to navigate the desires of others, Alex stays on Long Island and drifts through the hedged lanes, gated driveways, and sun-blasted dunes of a world that is, at first, closed to her. Propelled by desperation and a mutable sense of morality, she spends the week leading up to Labor Day moving from one place to the next, a cipher leaving destruction in her wake.

FOR YOU AND ONLY YOU
A JOE GOLDBERG NOVEL
Caroline Kepnes
NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR
Joe Goldberg is ready for a change. Instead of selling books, he's writing them. Glenn Shoddy, an acclaimed literary author, recognizes Joe's genius and invites him to join a writing fellowship at Harvard. Finally, Joe will be in a place where intellect is the great equalizer and anything is possible, or so he thinks, until he meets his published, distinguished peers. Thankfully, Wonder Parish enters the picture. They have so much in common. No college degrees, no pretensions, no stories from prep school or grad school. If only Wonder could commit herself to the writing life, they could be soulmates. Wonder has a tendency to love, to covet, but Joe believes: If you want to write a book, you have to kill your darlings.

THE PRIVATE LIFE OF SPIES AND THE EXQUISITE ART OF GETTING EVEN STORIES
Alexander McCall Smith
NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR
In this dual collection of short stories, Alexander McCall Smith brings his trademark humor and warmth to inventive tales of spying and vengeance. In one story, a spy dropped deep into enemy territory manages to disguise himself as a nun. In another, an invitation to join the Vatican Secret Service sends a prospective operative down a rabbit hole of controversy and confusion. A third story finds an author, on the brink of public ruin, seeing the error of his ways after an act of kindness saves the day. With surprising insight and a healthy helping of humor, these stories remind us that, in the end, the high road is often the better one.
